CLEMENTS CENTER FOR SOUTHWEST STUDIES

ANNOUNCEMENT

The Clements Center is sponsoring a lecture on Monday, March 15, 1999, at 4:30 p.m., in The Forum, in the basement of Hughes-Trigg Student Center. Please join us to hear historian Curtis Hinsley from the University of Northern Arizona. Hinsley will speak on “Frank Hamilton Cushing and the Search for the Ancient Ones,” an account of ethnographer Cushing’s rationale for the Hemenway Southwestern Archaeological Expedition of the 1880s, which initiated Hohokam archaeology. In this slide lecture, Hinsley will explore the relationships between history, ethnography, and archaeology in the American Southwest.

This lecture is free and open to everyone, so please pass the word along to anyone who would be interested.
