Film

There will be a special showing of the film, "Titicut Follies", Saturday morning at 9 a.m. in Karcher Auditorium. The 84 minute movie is a purported documentary film of conditions at the State Hospital for the criminally insane at Bridgeport, Mass. The film, through closeups of inmates, presents a revealing if not shocking picture.

The film was described by the New York Times as making "Morat Sade look like Holiday on Ice."

There is a slight chance that the film will not be available for showing, so please pay attention to bulletin boards for further information. Attendance will be restricted to law students, faculty, and staff.

The last law school party for this semester is scheduled for Saturday night from 9 til 1 in the Four Seasons room of the Tower Motel at the Circle. If purchased at the door the cost will be $5 and $6 respectively.
