A TRIBUTE

to

MARGARET SMITH

and

JEAN JURY

The Staff of the 1969 Law School Yearbook extends a sincere tribute and expression of gratitude to Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Jury.

Always ready with a smile and a helping hand, these "Records Ladies," past and present, have done so much to aid law students in their difficult pursuits that we think it fitting to dedicate this page to them as our way of saying "Thanks."

Remember this . . .?

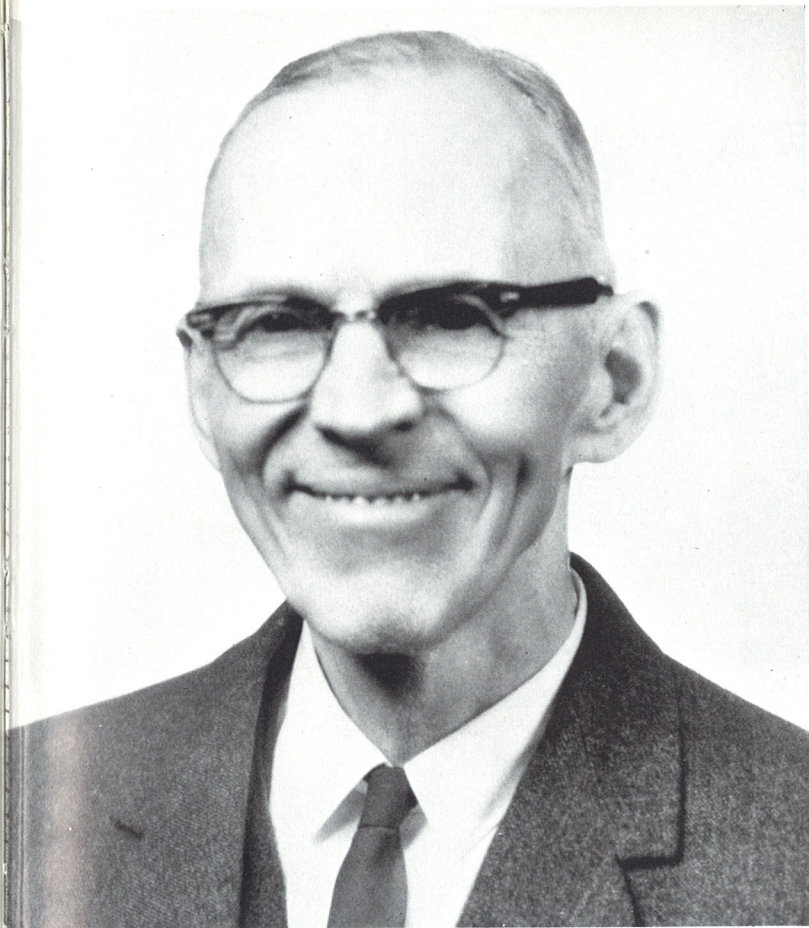

Now it looks like this!

Some things do change!

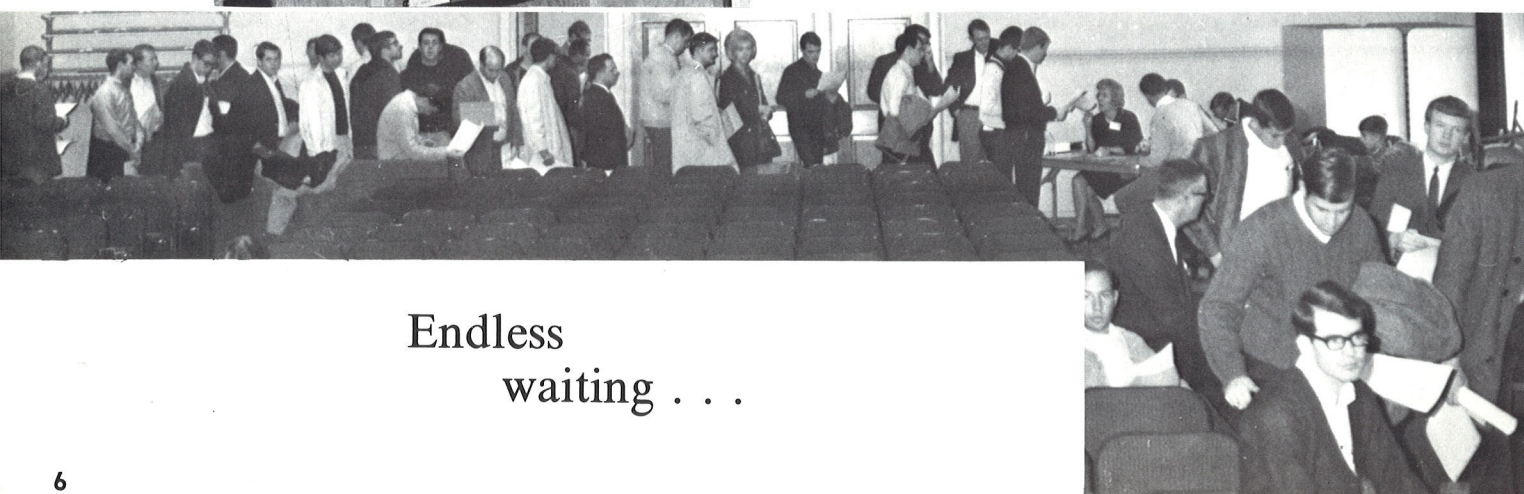

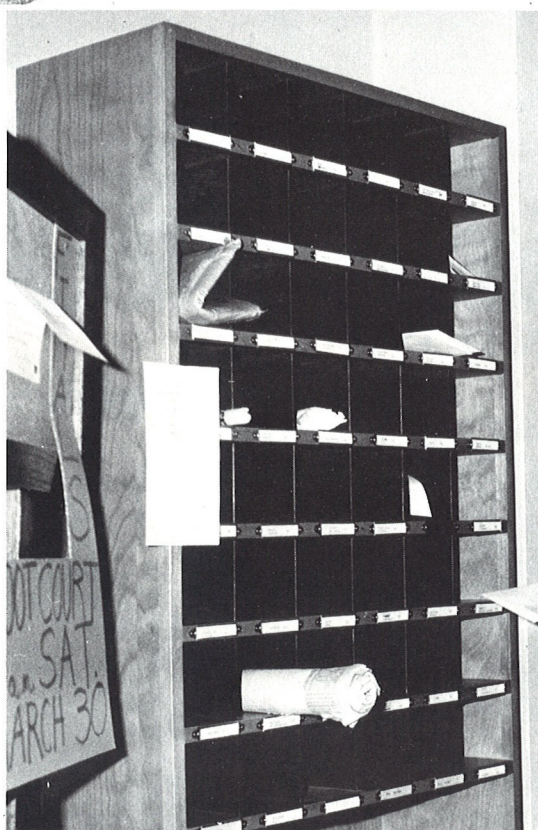

SOME THINGS DON'T!

Life goes on in the same old ways
...

Endless waiting ...

Insurmountable problems
and temptations . . .

Nervous pacing . . .

Racing about . . .

for meetings and conferences . . .

Academic pressure often . . .

Causes strange reactions . . .

Blow
it off !

Comes Monday
and it's back to THIS . . .

THEM . . .

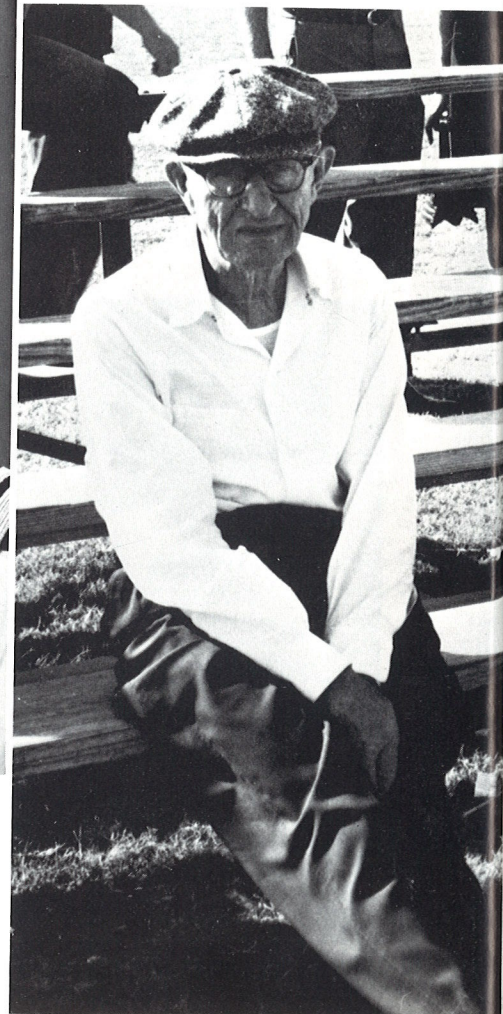

They love
it . . .

We have big things to look forward to . . .

Is that all . . . ?

Then again it might not!

Mmmm, could be!

How many think it is?

Once again I am pleased to have this opportunity to extend my own greetings and those of the faculty and staff to all of the students of the School of Law.

No one contends that law school is easy; indeed, it is a tough, frustrating grind just as the legal profession itself is a demanding discipline. Our students are, however, up to the challenge, and the pages of this book tell some of the story of extracurricular organizational work and some of the social and recreational events that provided respite from the academic rigors during the year.

All of us extend you our very best wishes.

‡ IN MEMORIAM ‡

Lawrence R. Abrams

William M. Hearne, Jr.

Courage, fortitude and hope are qualities difficult to define and even more difficult to find separately in men. These men combined the three.

Courage, fortitude and hope mark men of distinction and greatness—men people can look to as a source for the virtues which were the hallmarks of their lives—men people are not likely to forget.

Courage, fortitude and hope never pass from our midst. They live on for all generations as do the men who possess them.

Larry and Bill used their qualities in much the same way under much the same conditions. They both used their courage against the same enemy. They both had the fortitude to accept silently and press toward the goal they were seeking. They both never gave up the hope of achievement.

They have achieved—probably more than anyone reading these inadequate words.

We are not likely to forget.

Southwestern Legal Foundation

DEAN ROBERT G. STOREY President

DR. ANDREW R. CECIL
Vice President

In the academic year 1968-1969, The Southwestern Legal Foundation conducted twenty-five programs in various fields of advanced continuing professional education. These programs were attended by practicing attorneys, business executives, governmental officials, and law enforcement officers.

All Foundation programs are held at the Southwestern Legal Center on the Southern Methodist University campus, housing the Southern Methodist University School of Law and the Foundation.

The Foundation was chartered in 1947. Storey Hall, the administrative headquarters of both the Law School and the Foundation, was dedicated in 1949 and named in honor of Robert G. Storey, President of the Foundation, then Dean of the Law School. Dr. Andrew R. Cecil, Executive Vice President and Educational Director, has completed his eleventh year with the Foundation.

The various educational events offered by the Foundation are attended by registrants from all the United States and many other nations. Each program is under the auspices of a division of the Foundation, the divisions being the Continuing Legal Education Center, the International and Comparative Law Center, the International Oil and Gas Educational Center, the Southwestern Law Enforcement Institute, and the Municipal Legal Studies Center. Programs include institutes, symposia, and seminars of two to three days' duration; short courses of one to two weeks; schools of four weeks, and academies of seven to twelve weeks.

Initiative for the establishment of many of the Foundation's programs comes from the Research Fellows, an invited group of distinguished citizens in professional and business fields. Financial support from the Research Fellows has launched and supported several of the educational divisions.

Besides providing scholarships and fellowships for its own advanced educational programs, the Foundation also contributes toward scholarships for accredited study in the Southern Methodist University School of Law. Both graduate and undergraduate grants are made, with the former including grants to foreign nationals.

The Foundation's publications are augmented annually by eight to ten volumes, largely made up of institute and symposia proceedings. Oil and Gas Reporter, a looseleaf monthly service, has been published since 1952.

The Board of Trustees of the Foundation, elected at the annual membership meeting during Lawyers Week, includes the following officers: Leon Jaworski, Chairman; W. Harry Jack, Vice Chairman; Robert G. Storey, President; R. R. Gilbert, Vice President; Mrs. H. Harold Wineburgh, Secretary; and James W. Aston, Treasurer; and Frank B. Appleman, William P. Barnes, Charles E. Beard, William H. Bell, William A. Blakley, Maurice R. Bullock, George A. Butler, Ben H. Carpenter, Paul Carrington, James F. Chambers, Philip E. Coldwell, John B. Connally, Jerome K. Crossman, Courtney C. Crouch, H. Ben Decherd, Hicks Epton, Joe E. Estes, Wilton H. Fair, James D. Fellers, W. Dow Hamm, Morris Harrell, John N. Jackson, J. Cleo Thompson, John H. Tucker, jr., J. Glenn Turner, Sam Winstead, J. Ralph Wood, Ozro T. Woods, Ben H. Wooten, Edward L. Wright, and Angus G. Wynne.

Co-chairmen of the Ninth Annual Institute on Exploration and Economics of the Petroleum Industry share their satisfaction with the pertinence of the 1969 program. They are, left, Chas. R. Dodson, Senior Vice President of the United California Bank, a member of the Advisory Board of the International Oil and Gas Educational Center, and Dr. Frank B. Conselman, consulting geologist, President of the American Association of Petroleum Geologists, Advisory Board Member and Chmn. of the Oil and Gas Center's Geologists Committee.

President-Elect Nominee of the American Bar Association Edward L. Wright gives the keynote talk at the Research Fellows—Dallas Bar Association Law Day, U.S.A. observance. His topic was "The Proposed Code of Professional Responsibility."

An overflow audience of registrants listens intently during the first Symposium on Securities Regulation, April 23-26, 1969, in Karcher Auditorium.
