LAW SCHOOL QUADRANGLE

WELCOME TO SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

THE SCHOOL OF LAW of Southern Methodist University was established in February 1925. The school is a member of the Association of American Law Schools and is approved by the Section on Legal Education of the American Bar Association.

There are four buildings in the Law School Quadrangle. Storey Hall houses the faculty library, faculty and administrative offices, the Legal Clinic, School of Law publications, and Karcher Auditorium. Lawyers Inn provides living quarters and dining facilities for about eighty students and contains a lounge, recreation room, faculty dining room, and apartments. Florence Hall is a modern classroom building with a model law office and courtroom facilities having modern audio-visual equipment and closed circuit television. Underwood Law Library contains a collection of 215,000 volumes ranking second among private law school libraries west of the Mississippi.

The Law School is uniquely advantaged by its location in the Dallas Metroplex Area; it draws students from most of the fifty states. The School maintains a close working relationship with the Dallas Bar Association, many of the members of which teach seminars that provide a wealth of courses in specialized areas. Students have the opportunity to select courses and seminars of small enrollment with intimate interaction with the teaching personnel.

SMU Law School's Legal Clinic provides practical instruction in civil, criminal, and tax cases under the careful supervision of experienced practitioners. Students prepare legal documents, interview and counsel clients, and appear in court in a variety of cases. In addition, students may earn credit as interns to law firms and agencies of the State and Federal Government.

The Graduate Program in International and Comparative Law is attended by distinguished lawyers and judges from many foreign countries with particular emphasis on those from Latin America, the Middle East and Far East.

SMU MUSTANG BAND

The famed all-brass, all-jazz SMU Mustang Band has been a part of the Law School Hooding Ceremony since 1973. Through the years this group has been known as "The Hub of SMU Spirit," "96 Guys and a Doll," "The Best Dressed Band in The Land," and "Guys and Dolls." From red and blue blazers to red nightgowns, the Mustang Band has a wardrobe of over twenty-five different uniform combinations. The big-band jazz sounds of the Mustangs has been a part of the Hilltop and the Cotton Bowl since 1958. Performing at football and basketball halftimes and the Homecoming Pigskin Revue, Dr. Irving Dreibrodt and Jack Rohr, the Band's Assistant Director and Arranger, have pleased audiences with music they wanted to hear. Fans often stay around after athletic events to hear the Mustang Band's post-game concert. We are happy to have representatives of this famous collegiate group performing for us today.

CHAPEL BELL RINGERS

The Handbell Ringers have played for audiences all over the world—Europe, Columbia, Canada, Mexico, and the United States. In 1975, the unique sounds of the English Handbells were added to the Law School Hooding Ceremony. The English type handbell was designed in the 17th Century by the ringers of the massive tower bells. English Handbells were probably introduced to the United States during the 1830's and 1840's. It is estimated that there are more than 8,000 bell choirs today. The director of the Handbell Choir of First Baptist Church in Dallas is Mr. Jeff Herrick. Jeff is Music Assistant to Mr. Gary Moore at First Baptist in Dallas. He is also organist for more than twenty-five choirs in the Church.

ORGANIST

Dr. William R. Hanson, prominent Dallas dentist and classical music performer, is the organist for the Hooding Ceremony. In great demand to play for various events in the area, Dr. Hanson has played on organs in concert halls throughout the world. The Orient, Europe, South America, Canada, Mexico, and the United States have heard the sounds of Dr. Hanson as he accompanied touring choirs and soloists. Tyson Piano and Organ Company of Dallas has provided the Rogers Organ for this occasion.

FLORAL DECORATIONS

The beautiful setting for the Hooding Ceremony has the special touch of Virgil Thurmond, owner of Nitsche Convention Florist of Duncanville, who has planned the floral decoration for our ceremony since 1975.

SOUND ENGINEER

A graduate from the SMU School of the Arts in 1973, Gary French of Dallas has coordinated the sound for the Hooding Ceremony for the past three years. From 1970-1973, Gary engineered the sound for all of SMU's Homecoming Pigskin Revues and was also production manager for KSMU. He is now associated with Southwest Film Laboratory.
