LAW SCHOOL QUADRANGLE

WELCOME TO SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

Southern Methodist University opened in the fall of 1915 and graduated its first class in the spring of 1916. This is the seventy-first annual University commencement.

THE SCHOOL OF LAW of Southern Methodist University was established in February 1925. The school is a member of the Association of American Law Schools and is approved by the Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar of the American Bar Association.

The first law school class graduated in 1928 with eleven members. This, the fifty-ninth graduating class, consists of 216 candidates for the Juris Doctor degree, 38 candidates for the Master of Laws degree (Comparative and International Law), 34 candidates for the Master of Laws degree, 3 Diplomas in International Studies, and one Doctor of the Science of Law degree.

There are four buildings in the Law School Quadrangle. Storey Hall houses the faculty library, faculty and administrative offices, the Legal Clinic, School of Law publications, and Karcher Auditorium. Lawyers Inn provides living quarters and dining facilities for about eighty students and contains a lounge, recreation room, faculty dining room and apartments. Florence Hall is a modern classroom building with a model law office and courtroom facilities having modern audio-visual equipment and closed circuit television. Underwood Law Library contains a collection of over 300,000 volumes ranking second among private law school libraries west of the Mississippi.

The Law School is uniquely advantaged by its location in the Dallas Metroplex Area; it draws its more than 800 students from most of the fifty states and from over 200 colleges and universities. The School maintains a close working relationship with the Dallas Bar Association, many of the members of which teach seminars that provide a wealth of courses in specialized areas. Students have the opportunity to select courses and seminars of small enrollment with intimate interaction with the teaching personnel.

SMU Law School's Legal Clinic provides practical instruction in appellate, civil, criminal, and tax cases under the careful supervision of experienced practitioners. Students prepare legal documents, interview and counsel clients, and appear in court in a variety of cases. In addition, students may earn credit as interns to law firms and agencies of the State and Federal Government.

The Graduate Program in International and Comparative Law is attended by distinguished lawyers and judges from many foreign countries with particular emphasis on those from Latin American, the Middle East and Far East.

SMU MUSTANG BAND

The famed all-brass, all-jazz SMU Mustang Band has been a part of the Law School Hooding Ceremony since 1973. Through the years this group has been known as "The Hub of SMU Spirit," "96 Guys and a Doll," "The Best Dressed Band in The Land," and "Guys and Dolls." From red and blue blazers to red nightgowns, the Mustang Band has a wardrobe for over twenty-five different uniform combinations. The big-band jazz sounds of the Mustangs have been a part of the Hilltop and the Cotton Bowl since 1958. Performing at football and basketball halftimes and the Homecoming Pigskin Revue, Mustang Band blends music from the big band era with a contemporary sound to please music lovers throughout the sports world. Fans often stay around after athletic events to hear the Mustang Band's Post Game Concerts. Dr. Irving Dreibrodt initiated the changes to put SMU on the map when he came to the Hilltop in 1958 as Director. After Dr. Dreibrodt's retirement in 1983, Mr. Bob Brandenberger was named Director. Mr. Brandenberger was a member of the Mustang Band from 1966-1970. After producing award winning bands in the Texas U.I.L. contests and receiving a Master's Degree from SMU, he was named Associate Director in 1977. Mr. Tommy Tucker and Mr. Louis Dorfmann also serve as Associate Directors. We are happy to have representatives of this famous collegiate group performing for us today.

ORGANIST

Dr. William R. Hanson, prominent Dallas dentist and classical music performer, is the organist for the Hooding Ceremony. In great demand to play for various events in the area, Dr. Hanson has also performed in concert halls throughout the world. The Orient, Europe, South America, Canada, Mexico and the United States have heard Dr. Hanson's music as he accompanied touring choirs and soloists.

ORGAN

Brook Mays Music company of Dallas and Munselle Piano and Organ of Irving have provided the organ for this occasion.

FLORAL DECORATIONS

The beautiful setting for the Hooding Ceremony has the special touch of Virgil Thurmond, owner of Nitsche Convention Florist of Dallas, who has planned the floral decorations for our ceremony since 1975.

SOUND ENGINEER

A graduate from the SMU School of the Arts in 1973, Gary French of Dallas has coordinated the sound of the Hooding Ceremony for the past eleven years. From 1970-73, Gary engineered the sound for all of SMU's Homecoming Pigskin Revues and was also production manager for KSMU. He is now associated with WBS Post Production Services. Gary's associate for the Hooding Ceremony is Jody Pearson.

FLAGS

Furnished by Hugh Campbell Company of Dallas.
Presented by Highland Park High School student body and coordinated by Mr. Cecil Holmes, Jr.

PHOTOGRAPHS

Bradley Photographers have provided excellent coverage of the Hooding Ceremony since 1974.
