GENERAL INFORMATION

HISTORY

The School of Law was established by resolution of the Board of Trustees in February, 1925, and was formally opened the following September. In 1938 the Dallas School of Law, which had been established in 1925 by the Young Men's Christian Association, was merged with the School of Law of Southern Methodist University. Since that time the School of Law has operated a Day Division and an Evening Division. The School is a member of the Association of American Law Schools, an organization whose object is the maintenance of high standards in legal education, and is on the list of schools approved by the Council on Legal Education of the American Bar Association.

LOCATION

Southern Methodist University is situated within the city limits of University Park, approximately six miles from the business center of Dallas. This location offers distinct advantages for law students. City, County, State and Federal Courts are within a half-hour ride from the school, and are in session throughout the entire year. Students are encouraged to visit these courts as a part of their training in the School. The classrooms, offices and Library of the School of Law are located on the first two floors of the East Wing of Dallas Hall, the central building on the campus.

LAW LIBRARY

The Law Library contains approximately 25,000 volumes, carefully selected to avoid unnecessary duplications and to insure the greatest possible usefulness. This includes all reported cases of the Federal Courts and practically all reported cases of the State Courts and all English reported cases from the time of Henry VIII. There are also collections of Canadian and Australian reports.

The statutory collection includes the current statute law of the United States and of practically all of the states. The library has excellent collections of treatises, encyclopedias, digests, citators and services which make it a valuable working laboratory for the students. Several copies of all leading textbooks are available. Complete files of forty-three leading law periodicals are on hand and the library currently subscribes to one hundred and eight law reviews.

The other libraries of the University contain approximately 205,000 catalogued books and pamphlets and accessions are being made at the rate of about 20,000 a year. Fondren Library, a handsomely appointed and air-conditioned building, houses the general library. It is arranged for maximum convenience and research. Its reading rooms are available to law students at all times.

OBJECTIVE OF THE SCHOOL

The objective of the School is the thorough training of its students in the science and method of the law. The rules and principles are studied in the light of their context, their purpose and their actual effect upon the social institutions of their time. Together with the understanding of the body of the law, there is sought to be imparted the ability to apply its rules and principles in a professional manner.

It is recognized that not all graduates of the School will practice law. Some will go into government service; some will become judges and legislators; others will pursue business careers. The course of instruction has been planned accordingly and is intended to develop a consciousness of the responsibility of the lawyer to society for the improvement of the law, both in its substance and in its administration.

METHOD OF INSTRUCTION

The case method of instruction, followed by the leading law schools of the country, is employed. This involves a thorough analysis of selected cases and statutes and the discussion of legal principles deduced therefrom. The students are thus introduced to the materials they will use in the practice of law and learn to make distinctions and to reason by analogy. Particular effort is made to train the students in the procedural side of the law. Classroom instruction is supplemented by a course in Brief Writing and Oral Advocacy, by work in the Moot Court, and for seniors by work in the Legal Aid Clinic.

Classes in the School of Law are kept small, rarely containing more than fifty students. As a result students have the advantage of individual attention and close personal relations with their professors. Ten members of the faculty devote their entire time and energies to the work of the school and are thereby freely available to the students for consultation and advice in connection with their studies. It is believed that this is one of the most valuable features of law school study. In addition to the regular faculty, instruction in certain fields of law is given by active practitioners and lecturers chosen for their special fitness for the particular subjects.

ADMISSION

RECOMMENDED PRE-LEGAL COURSE

General. The School of Law does not prescribe a fixed course of pre-legal studies, but does examine each application for admission to determine the appropriateness of courses taken in light of the recommendations made herein.

Duration of Pre-Legal Course. It is recommended that the pre-legal student complete the requirements for a bachelor's degree prior to enrollment in the School of Law. If this be not feasible, it is recommended that he complete in Southern Methodist University or in another college or university where the course is offered, the first three years of a six-year combination course in Law and Arts, or Law and Business Administration. In event the combination course be not available in the college or university attended, it is recommended that the student complete three years of college work embracing courses substantially similar to those included in such a combination course.

Minimum Subject Requirements. So far as the student is free to elect courses in his pre-legal studies, he should select those best suited to equip him to occupy a prominent position in the cultural, social and business affairs of his community. Effective grasp of English grammar, rhetoric and composition is considered indispensable. The pre-legal course should include not less than six (6) semester-hours in each of the following subjects: English Grammar and Composition; English Literature; Mathematics; English History; American History; Philosophy and Ethics; Economics; Political Science or Government; Accounting; and each of two natural sciences. If a foreign language is taken it should be Latin.

SIX-YEAR COMBINATION COURSES

Requirements. The College of Arts and Sciences and the School of Business Administration offer courses of study whereby the student may earn the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Business Administration, respectively, and the degree of Bachelor of Laws in six years. The specific requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts and of Bachelor of Business Administration under this plan are fixed by the faculties of the school or college concerned, and are stated in the bulletins issued by those schools. In general, the plans provide that student shall register for the first three years in the College of Arts and Sciences or the School of Business Administration, during which time he shall complete the specific course requirements for the degree sought and shall otherwise comply with the hour and grade requirements of that college or school. The student then registers in the School of Law for his fourth year of study. Upon the completion of two semesters of law study with a satisfactory grade average, the student who otherwise has complied with the requirements of the College of Arts and Sciences or the School of Business Administration becomes eligible for the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Business Administration. Upon completing the remaining two years of law study, and satisfying the requirements of the School of Law, the student becomes eligible for the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

Elective Courses. Election of courses under the six-year combination plan is somewhat restricted. So far as the student is free to elect courses, he should seek a well-rounded program, incorporating therein to the greatest extent practicable such of the following subjects as are not prescribed: English History; American History; Mathematics; Literature; Economics; Philosophy and Ethics; Political Science or Government; and Accounting. If a foreign language is taken it should be Latin. Particular attention should be devoted to the development of facility and style in the clear and forceful use of the English language.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

Admission by Selection. Admission to the School of Law is by selection based upon the academic record of the applicant and other available data.

Credit Requirements. To be considered for admission, an applicant must have been granted a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university, or must have completed not less than ninety (90) semester-hours of credit toward a bachelor's degree, earned in residence in an accredited college or university.

Temporary Provision for Ex-Service Applicants. For the Summer Session, 1948, only an applicant honorably discharged from the armed services of the United States may be considered upon the presentation of not less than sixty (60) semester-hours of credit earned in an accredited college or university. For the Fall Semester, 1948-1949, only, such an applicant will be considered on presentation of seventy-five (75) semester-hours of approved pre-legal work. Beginning in 1949 ex-service personnel must comply with the entrance standards applicable to other students.

Course Requirements. The ninety (90) hour minimum requirement stated above shall be exclusive of credits earned in non-theory courses in military science, physical education, hygiene, domestic arts, vocal and instrumental music, teaching methods and techniques, or other courses without substantive content appropriate to the study of law; except that required courses in military science and physical education may be included.

Grade Requirements. The applicant must have a weighted average of not less than C in all work of college grade attempted and in which a grade, either passing or failing, has been recorded, except that courses for which pre-legal credit is not allowed, as stated in the subparagraph next preceding, are not included in computing the average.

Dates of Admission. Beginning students will be admitted in the Fall Semester and Summer Session only.

Application for Admission. Application for admission should be made well in advance of the date of intended enrollment. Application will be in writing, preferably on forms supplied by the School of Law. The application will be supported by transcripts (in duplicate) from all colleges attended by the applicant. A person filing an application while still enrolled in his pre-legal studies should file transcripts showing the pre-legal work completed to date, and the courses in which he is enrolled at the date of application.

READMISSION OF FORMER STUDENTS

Students who withdrew from the School of Law while in good standing therein will be readmitted subject to the following limitations.

Students who withdrew before completing their first semester or term of law study may apply for readmission in the Fall Semester or Summer Session only. Students who completed one or more semesters or terms prior to withdrawal may apply for readmission at the beginning of either semester or the Summer Session.

Students who apply for readmission within the following periods will be readmitted without reexamination of their entrance credentials: Those who withdrew before earning twelve semester-hours credit, within twenty-four calendar months from the date of withdrawal; those who withdrew after earning twelve or more semester-hours credit, within forty-eight calendar months from the date of withdrawal. In computing these periods there will not be included any period or periods between September 1, 1940, and June 30, 1947, in which the student was on active duty with any of the armed services of the United States, or any period in which the student was licensed and engaged in the practice of law in this or another state. Students who apply for readmission after the expiration of the periods stated will be required to comply with the requirements for admission to the School of Law in effect at the date of readmission.

ADMISSION AS A SPECIAL STUDENT

A special student is one who cannot comply with the requirements for admission to regular standing in the School of Law and who, upon petition, is admitted by action of the faculty.

No petition for admission as a special student will be considered unless the applicant is at least twenty-five years of age and has a formal education sufficient to secure admission to regular freshman standing in the University. In addition, the applicant must furnish evidence of practical experience that will compensate for the absence of all or part of the three years of college training required for admission as a student with regular standing.

Only a limited number of special students are admitted each year. A special student is not eligible for a degree, nor can a degree be obtained by the subsequent removal of entrance deficiencies. A transcript showing the period of attendance, the courses taken, and the grades received will be furnished upon request.

The application for admission as a special student must be made to the Faculty of the School of Law, but a personal interview with the Dean before making formal application, is desirable.

ADMISSION TO ADVANCED STANDING

Persons Eligible. A student who has completed successfully a part of the law course in another law school which was at the time of such study a member of the Association of American Law Schools, or approved by the Council on Legal Education of the American Bar Association, may apply for admission with advanced standing. The applicant must establish his eligibility to enter Southern Methodist University School of Law, and must be in good standing in the law school formerly attended.

Dates of Admission. Transfer students may be admitted in the Summer Session or in either semester of the long session.

Application. Application for admission with advanced standing will be made in writing. It will be supported by transcripts (in duplicate) from all colleges and law schools previously attended. Good standing in the law school last attended may be established by letter from the Dean of that school, either filed with the application or submitted at the time of enrollment in this school.

Advanced Credit. Advanced credit for work completed in another law school will be determined by the Dean of the School of Law. Advanced credit will not be granted for work completed in another law school with a grade below C or its equivalent.

Minimum Residence Requirement. A student admitted with advanced standing may not qualify for a degree from the School of Law until he shall have completed satisfactorily at least two semesters' study in the Day Division or three semesters' study in the Evening Division of the School of Law.

AUDITORS

Members of the State Bar of Texas may be enrolled as Auditors in specific courses. Auditors take no examination and receive no credit for work taken.

TUITION AND FEES

DAY DIVISION

Tuition. Tuition fees are computed at the rate of $17.50 for each semester-hour of work taken, with a maximum charge in the Day Division of $175 per semester of 16 weeks, and $120 for a Summer Session. Courses audited (taken without examination or credit) by regularly enrolled students will be charged for at the same rate as courses taken for credit. (Note: For the Summer Session 1948 only the fee will be $15 per semester-hour with a maximum charge of $100.)

Student Activity Fee. All regular students in the University, including law students in the Day Division, pay the Student Activity Fee of $11.50 each for the Winter and Spring semesters. This fee is assessed by the Students' Association and pays for tickets to all athletic contests on the campus, for the students' annual, the semi-weekly newspaper, and other activities in which the students are interested.

Student Union Building Fee. This was authorized by the Board of Trustees at its February, 1947, meeting. The Board gave the governing body of the Student Union Building the authority to assess a compulsory fee not to exceed $5.00 per semester and $3.00 for the Summer Term. Proceeds are to provide for the operation of the Student Union building.

Library Deposit. All students make a library deposit of $5 at the beginning of the school year. It is returned to the student at the end of the year less any deductions for damages or fines.

Payment of Accounts. The tuition and other fees of non-veterans are payable at the beginning of each semester, but arrangements may be made with the Business Manager of the University to pay in instalments for a small carrying charge. The Veterans' Administration is billed for the tuition, fees, and books of eligible veterans, except the library deposit, which is made by the student.

Refund of Tuition Fees. If a student should matriculate in the School of Law and, for a good reason, be unable to attend classes, all of his fees except $10 will be refunded. If a student matriculates but leaves the University within the first three weeks after the first day of registration of a semester or Summer Session, one-half of his tuition and fees will be refunded. After the third week no refunds are allowed. Refunds are allowed only upon honorable dismissal by the Dean of the School of Law, and must be applied for at the date of withdrawal.

EVENING DIVISION

Tuition. Tuition fees are computed at the rate of $17.50 for each semester-hour of work taken, with a maximum charge in the Evening Division of $130 per semester of 16 weeks, and $90 for a Summer Session. Courses audited (taken without examination or credit) by regularly enrolled students will be charged for at the same rate as courses taken for credit. (Note: For the Summer Session 1948 only the fee will be $15 per semester-hour with a maximum charge of $75.)

The Student Activity Fee and the Student Union Building Fee are optional for students in the Evening Division.

The Library Deposit is the same as in the Day Division.

Payment of Accounts. Tuition and other fees are payable at the beginning of each semester or Summer Session. Students in the Evening Division may arrange, without penalty, to pay one-third of their fees at the time of registration, one-third during the fourth week of instruction, and one-third during the eighth week of instruction. A charge of $2 is made for late payment of accounts.

Refund of Tuition Fees. A student who withdraws during the first four weeks of a semester or Summer Session will be charged one-third of his total fees. One who withdraws in the fifth to eighth weeks inclusive will be charged two-thirds of his total fees. One who withdraws after eight weeks will be charged full tuition. Refunds are allowed only upon honorable dismissal by the Dean of the School of Law and must be applied for at the date of withdrawal.

AUDITORS

Members of the State Bar of Texas taking courses without examination or credit will be charged a fee of $25 per course, without reference to the number of semester-hours involved. This fee is payable in advance and is not refundable.

AIDS AND AWARDS TO STUDENTS

SCHOLARSHIPS

Two scholarships are awarded annually to law students on the basis of scholastic record and need of financial assistance.

W. A. Rhea Memorial. Established by friends of the late Professor William Alexander Rhea, first member of the faculty of the School of Law. Stipend $100.

A scholarship has also been established by an alumnus of the School. Stipend $250.

Application for either scholarship should be made to the Dean on a blank to be furnished on request.

Law students may also make application to the Dean of Students, 110 Dallas Hall, for certain scholarships available in the School of Law as well as in other schools of the University. Reference is made to these scholarships in the General Information Bulletin of the University.

LOANS

Loans are available to deserving students in any school of the University who are in need of financial assistance and who have a scholastic average equal to the minimum average required for graduation in the particular school. They are made ordinarily only for tuition and fees, but loans from the William Wallace Taxis and the Blanche M. Taxis funds are available for personal necessities. Students needing loans may obtain application blanks from the Dean of Students.

PRIZES

The Arthur A. Everts Trophy is awarded each year on Lawyers Day to the winning counsel in the Senior Case Club Argument.

The Vernon Law Book Company donates to each of the three winners in the Senior Case Club Argument a choice of McCormick and Ray, Texas Law of Evidence; Franki, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, or some other one volume publication.

The Bancroft-Whitney Company awards each year to the ex-service man student making the highest three-year average a set of Jones, Commentaries on the Law of Evidence (6 volumes).

The law firm of Carrington, Gowan, Johnson and Walker presents a gold watch to the outstanding student in the first year class.

The Vernon Law Book Company awards a set of Stayton's Annotated Texas Forms (3 volumes), or a set of Modern Legal Forms (3 volumes) to the author of the best individual contribution to Texas Law and Legislation during the year.

Bound reprints of selected topics from American Jurisprudence are presented by the publishers to the student writing the best examination paper in each of the following courses: Administrative Law, Agency, Bailments (Personal Property), Bankruptcy (Creditors Rights), Bills and Notes, Corporations, Conflict of Laws, Constitutional Law, Contracts, Equity, Evidence, Insurance, Labor Law, Mortgages (Security), Pleading (Procedure II), Taxation and Trusts.

Law students are also eligible to compete for the R. E. L. Saner Award in Oratory, a gold watch offered annually in a contest begun by the late R. E. L. Saner, LL.D., of Dallas.

STUDENT SELF-SUPPORT

The Dallas area offers many opportunities to those students who must earn sufficient money to defray a part of their expenses while attending law school. The University Employment Bureau, 110 Dallas Hall, seeks to aid students in finding employment both on and off the campus. Inquiries should be addressed directly to the Bureau.

In planning his law study, the student should weigh carefully the effect of outside employment upon his law school work. A full-time course in the Day Division of the School of Law requires a full working day of the conscientious student. By sacrificing his leisure time, the full-time student may be enabled to accept a very limited amount of outside employment. A student who must accept outside employment in any substantial amount should plan in advance to effect a corresponding reduction in his law school work, with the consequent lengthening of his law school course by one or more semesters.

Students who are required to be substantially or wholly self-supporting while in law school are advised to enroll in the Evening Division.

UNIVERSITY HEALTH SERVICE

The University provides a limited health service. All students living in the University dormitories or enrolled for regular work are entitled to the following health services: a health examination and smallpox vaccination by the University physicians; consultation with the University physicians during office hours at their University offices; and conferences and treatment by the nurse at such other times as may be designated. Students living in the dormitories are also entitled to care in the University infirmaries, with nurse and doctor in charge. As far as available space will permit, other eligible students may obtain the same care during illness for $5 a day. This service does not include residence calls, fees of specialists or consultants, operations, or treatment for illnesses that necessitate hospital treatment.

The University physicians will co-operate in carrying out any prolonged line of treatment previously outlined by the family physician.

Every student attending the University must have a physical examination by a University physician.

Physical examinations will be given at the beginning of each semester or summer session.

LIVING ACCOMMODATIONS

Room and board may be secured in the University dormitories situated on the campus and under the direct management of the University: Atkins Hall for men, and Snider and Virginia Halls and Ranch House (a temporary dormitory) for women. Seven temporary dormitories for 350 unmarried male veterans are also provided. For married students, there are 100 furnished trailers with accommodations. In addition, nine national social fraternities maintain houses for their members.

A limited number of rooms are available in private residences near the campus. Inquiries and requests for a list of suitable rooms should be addressed, in the case of men students, to the Assistant Dean of Students, 110 Dallas Hall, and in the case of women students, to the Field Secretary, Perkins Hall.

Rooms for men in Atkins Hall and the temporary dormitories cost $67.50 per semester. Trailers for married students cost from $20 to $27 per month. Rooms for women in Snider and Virginia Halls and in Ranch House cost from $67.50 to $112.50 a semester. All students living in the dormitories are required to take their meals there. The cost of board for both men and women is $180 per semester.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

The S. M. U. Law Students Association, open to all students in the School, has as its general purpose the promotion of the interests of the student body. The Association conducts bi-monthly forums at which leaders in public and professional life discuss topics of current interest; it also sponsors each semester a social function intended to encourage student acquaintance.

The Order of the Woolsack is a local scholastic honor society to which not more than the highest ten per cent of each graduating class may be elected by vote of the faculty.

Texas Law and Legislation is a semi-annual journal of legal scholarship published for the School of Law by the University Press in Dallas. Twenty students in the fourth, fifth and sixth semesters are chosen to serve as editors on the basis of scholastic standing and literary ability. One issue of the journal each year consists principally of notes prepared by the student editors relating to the several aspects of a single significant problem of the jurisprudence of Texas or the administration of justice in Texas courts. The other issue each year is devoted to a review of important decisions of the Texas Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals during the preceding year. It will also include a commentary on the legislative enactments in years when the legislature is in session.

The Senior Case Club is composed of six fifth and sixth semester law students selected each year by the faculty on the basis of scholastic achievement and effectiveness in oral presentation to serve as counsel in a moot case argued on Lawyers' Day. The case is heard and decided, on the basis of printed briefs and oral argument, by the Supreme Court of Texas, invited to the University annually for the occasion.

The Barristers, a general service organization of fifteen law students elected on the basis of scholarship and leadership, has as its purpose to undertake various projects for the benefit of the law students and the school.

Chapters of two national legal fraternities have been established at the school—the John Hemphill Senate of Delta Theta Phi and the Roger Brooke Taney Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta. Alpha Psi Chapter of the Kappa Beta Pi International Legal Sorority is active for the benefit of women students.

Upon payment of the Student Activity Fee at the time of registration, law students become entitled to the usual privileges in connection with intercollegiate athletic events, the lecture and concert series of the Community Course, the dramatic productions of the Arden Club, the several student publications, and the inter-mural athletic program in which law school teams compete.

PROGRAM OF INSTRUCTION 1948-1949

The accelerated program on which the school has operated for several years has been discontinued effective with the close of the Spring Semester 1948. Beginning with the Summer Session of 1948 the school will return to the normal program of two semesters of sixteen weeks each and a Summer Session of ten weeks in each academic year. The dates for these are: Summer Session, June 28 to September 8, 1948; Fall Semester, September 20, 1948, to January 31, 1949; Spring Semester, February 4 to May 31, 1949.

For the year 1948-1949 the faculty proposes to offer the courses listed below with the arabic numeral opposite each course indicating the number of semester-hours' credit. Every effort will be made to adhere to this program, but intervening circumstances may necessitate some minor changes. Persons interested in particular courses should inquire about them shortly before the beginning of the semester or session for which they are announced.

The Legal Center

Plan of the Southwestern Legal Foundation, and the School of Law, Southern Methodist University.

Shown on the following page is the architect's drawing of the $2,000,000 Legal Center to be erected on the Campus of Southern Methodist University. This Law Quadrangle composed of three air-conditioned buildings will be the headquarters of the Southwestern Legal Foundation and will house the Southern Methodist University School of Law. Pictured on the right is Kirby Hall which, together with five acres of land, has been dedicated to the exclusive use of the Legal Center. Kirby Hall will provide ample space for the classrooms, moot court rooms, and various student activities. The Main Building shown in the center will house the Law Library and administrative and executive offices of the Southern Methodist University Law School and the Southwestern Legal Foundation. The left wing of this building will contain the Oil and Gas Library and appropriate offices and rooms for study and research. The right wing will have an auditorium seating four hundred, the Faculty library and study, and a library devoted to International Law, Government and International Relations. The upper floors of the Lawyers' Building, shown on the left, will provide dormitory facilities for advanced law students and the first floor will contain a dining room, lounge and conference rooms for members of the Legal Foundation.

The Southwestern Legal Foundation was formed by a representative group of business men and lawyers to "support, encourage and establish scholarships, conduct research and investigations in legal problems and activities, including the general field of law and government; to cooperate with and make recommendations to recognized Bar Associations, Legal organizations, Foundations and other institutions interested in the improvement of the Legal Profession,

Law Schools and administration of Justice; to establish and operate Legal Institutes, Legal Aid Clinics and any other related activities for the benefit of the Legal Profession, the Public and Government; to conduct institutes, research and forums of International Law and relations, especially as affecting the Western Hemisphere—.”

Many of the proposed projects are now under way. There is in operation a free legal aid clinic operated jointly by the Legal Foundation, the Southern Methodist University School of Law, the Dallas Junior Bar Association, and the City-County Welfare Department. This clinic not only furnishes legal aid to those persons of low income groups who could not otherwise afford it, but at the same time serves as a laboratory where senior law students may acquire much needed practical experience.

The Legal Foundation and the Law School in cooperation with the State Bar of Texas and local bar associations, have sponsored Institutes on Taxation in various sections of the State. Similar institutes are planned in other fields of the law. It is planned to conduct an annual institute on foreign affairs similar to the Cleveland Institute of Foreign Affairs. In this connection also the Legal Center proposes to take full advantage of the Fulbright Act to exchange students and professors with friendly foreign governments.

Research is regarded as one of the important phases of Legal Center work and will be done by selected members of the faculty of the Law School, specialists from the profession, outstanding judges and lawyers, and by men in government and business. It is anticipated that special grants, fellowships and specific research undertakings will be financed through the Foundation.

ADMINISTRATIVE RULES AND REGULATIONS

ATTENDANCE

Regular attendance at classes is a condition of receiving credit for any course. No leaves of absence are given and no excuses for absences are accepted. When attendance in any course becomes unsatisfactory a student may be dropped. Where absences amount to more than twenty-five per cent of the total number of class meetings, the student will not be permitted to take the final examination. Each student is allowed a total of ten class-hours of absences in all courses combined in any one semester without penalty. For each additional hour's absence, one-fifteenth of a semester-hour will be deducted from the student's total credits.

EXAMINATIONS

A written examination is given at the end of each course, and the final grade is based primarily on this examination. No re-examinations are given. If a student fails to take the regularly scheduled examination in any course because of illness or other unavoidable cause, he must take the next regularly scheduled examination in that subject unless a special examination is ordered by the faculty. A student who fails to take the regularly scheduled examination without good cause will receive a failing grade in the course.

GRADES

The minimum passing grade is 60. There are no conditional passes or failures in law courses. A student who fails to pass a required course may at his election take it again, but is not required to do so except where failure is due to dropping the course. A student may, with the permission of the instructor and the Dean, retake a course in which he has made a final grade between 60 and 69 inclusive, but by doing so waives all right to have the grade theretofore made in that course counted toward his degree. In order to remain in school a student must maintain an average grade of at least 65 on his first two semesters of work, and an average of at least 68 on his third and fourth semesters of work.

DISCIPLINE

Students in the School of Law are subject to the general disciplinary regulations of the University, as well as the special regulations of the Faculty of the School of Law. The Faculty reserves the right to terminate the attendance of any student at any time, or to remove from the list of candidates for the degree the name of any student whom it may deem unworthy on account of neglect of study, incapacity for the law, or deficiency in conduct or character not in keeping with the standards of Southern Methodist University and of the legal profession. Any person who registers in the School agrees to this reserved right.

ADDITIONAL REGULATIONS

Specific rules governing registration, adding and dropping courses, failures, probation, residence and interdivisional transfers, reports and graduation are posted on the official bulletin board of the School and the student is charged with notice of them.

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

The degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.) will be conferred upon a candidate therefor in the Day Division who has credit for 76 semester-hours of work distributed over a period of not less than six semesters, or upon a candidate therefor in the Evening Division who has credit for 72 semester-hours of work distributed over a period of not less than eight semesters, provided the candidate is of good moral character and has complied with the following conditions:

1. The last two semesters of work in the Day Division or the last three semesters of work in the Evening Division must have been completed in this School. This work must not have been counted toward a law degree elsewhere.
2. An average grade of at least 70 must have been made on all work completed in the last two semesters in the Day Division or the last three semesters in the Evening Division. In computing this average, each course in which the student has taken the final examination will be included, regardless of whether credit for the course is necessary to make up the minimum requirement for semester-hours.

3. The total amount of work of the grade of 60 to 69 inclusive which shall be counted toward a law degree in any two semesters in the Day Division or any three semesters in the Evening Division, shall not exceed one-third of the total hours for which the student was registered during the period involved.

4. In each of the six semesters in the Day Division the student must have been registered for at least ten daytime class hours per week, and must have passed at least nine class hours of work. In each of the eight semesters in the Evening Division the student must have been registered for and passed six class hours per week.

5. A candidate may offer toward the fulfilment of the stated requirements for the degree only those courses which were completed by him in this or another approved law school within the eight calendar years next preceding the intended date of graduation. In computing the eight-year period there shall not be included therein any period or periods between September 1, 1940, and June 30, 1947, in which the candidate was on active duty with any of the armed services of the United States, or any period in which the candidate was licensed and engaged in the active practice of law in this or another state.

6. A study based on original research is required to be written by each candidate in his senior year. This paper must be presented in the form of a law review article to be approved by the professor in whose field the work is done.

7. The student's use of English must be satisfactory to the faculty.

HONORS

Candidates for the LL.B. degree having the highest average grade, not to exceed ten percent of the graduating class, may, by vote of the faculty, be awarded the degree, cum laude, magna cum laude or summa cum laude. No one shall be eligible for honors who shall have taken elsewhere more than one-third of the work offered for the degree. The average grade shall be based on work done in this School only; but to receive the degree with honors a transfer from another college must have at least a B average in law courses in the school previously attended.

ADMISSION TO THE BAR

Admission to the bar in Texas is controlled by rules of the Supreme Court and examinations given by the State Board of Law Examiners in Austin.

To be eligible for these examinations, the student must be a citizen of Texas and of the United States, must have had two years (60 semester-hours) of college work or its equivalent at the time he began the study of law and must have pursued his law studies for a period of not less than 27 months in a full-time law school, or 36 months in a part-time law school. Two examinations are given each year, one beginning on the fourth Monday in February and the other on the second Monday in July. In 1948 a special examination will be given, beginning on the second Monday in October. For the course of study prescribed and the rules governing the examinations, address Secretary, Board of Law Examiners, Austin, Texas.

The curriculum of the School of Law substantially covers all the subjects on which the bar examinations are based.

The rules of the Supreme Court require that every person intending to study law in Texas shall, within 30 days after beginning such study, file with the Board of Law Examiners in Austin, a "declaration of intention to study law" showing his educational attainments and the completion of a preliminary character examination. A form for this purpose may be obtained by writing the Recorder, School of Law, Southern Methodist University.

STANDARDS OF THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION

The Council on Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar of the American Bar Association requests that attention be called to the Standards of the American Bar Association adopted in 1921 and recommended for enactment by all states. These Standards provide in effect that every candidate for admission to the bar, in addition to taking a public examination, shall give evidence of graduation from a law school which shall require at least two years of study in a college as a condition of admission, and three years of law study (or longer if not a full-time course), which shall have an adequate library and a sufficient number of teachers giving their entire time to the school to ensure actual personal acquaintance and influence with the whole student body, and which shall not be operated as a commercial enterprise.
