THE CONFERRING OF HONORARY DEGREES

On the threshold of its second half century, the University, through its Faculty and Trustees, especially honors six men among the many who, in various essential ways, helped to create here an institution of higher learning and establish its standards.

DOCTOR OF LAWS

JEPHTHAH W. BLANTON

Member of the Educational Commission of 1910 which established this University, outstanding layman, leader in the business and civic affairs of this city, he has for decades worked in behalf of vital interests in this community and region and has remained a dedicated friend of Southern Methodist University for half a century.

Presented by Professor Herbert Pickens Gambrell

DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

HARVIE BRANSCOMB

To the parsonage born, to the university bred, he began on this campus the career which has left its indelible marks upon Duke and Vanderbilt and upon higher education here and abroad. For that, this University, like many others, honors him and on this Anniversary occasion gives especial recognition to his part in creating here a climate of academic excellence during the formative years of this institution.

Presented by Professor Hemphill Hosford

DOCTOR OF CIVIL LAW

JOHN EDWARD HICKMAN

As a lawyer and distinguished Chief Justice of Texas, he has devoted his life to jurisprudence and its improvement; a dedicated churchman who deeply believes in the spiritual values of our national and personal life; a devoted Trustee of Southern Methodist University for thirty-nine of its fifty years; a humanitarian whose personality and learning and character have enriched his region and his generation.

Presented by Dean-Emeritus Robert Gerald Storey

DOCTOR OF LAWS

ROGER PHILIP McCUTCHEON

Professor of English and Dean of the Graduate School of Tulane University for seventeen years, whose studies of Eighteenth Century literature give historical dimensions to the thought of our times, his insistence that academic pretensions should not out-run academic accomplishments has made higher education in the South a more responsible enterprise.

Presented by Professor Claude Carroll Albritton, Jr.

DOCTOR OF LITERATURE

A. FRANK SMITH

First campus pastor of Southern Methodist University in 1915, distinguished Bishop of The Methodist Church since 1930, born leader of men in the cause of God, his guidance of this University as Trustee and then from 1938 to 1960 as Chairman of the Board of Trustees has provided inspiration for its development as an institution dedicated to excellence of education in a Christian atmosphere. His influence for good upon men and affairs can not be measured.

Presented by Professor Sterling F. Wheeler

DOCTOR OF LITERATURE

C. FRANKLYN ZEEK

Professor of French and exponent of academic excellence during the first twenty-two years of Southern Methodist University; then a distinguished professor at Vanderbilt University; his triple-based education at Tulane, at Oxford (where he was a Rhodes Scholar) and at the University of Grenoble gave him an international vision which he successfully imparted to many students in this region, while firmly fusing his scrupulous scholarship with his steady exploration of Christian theology.

Presented by Professor J. Lon Tinkle

THE UNIVERSITY HYMN

Conducted by TRAVIS SHELTON, Ed.D., Professor of Music Education
