MONDAY, NOVEMBER 3rd

in honor of

Randolph B. "Mike" Campbell

Regents Professor of History, University of North Texas

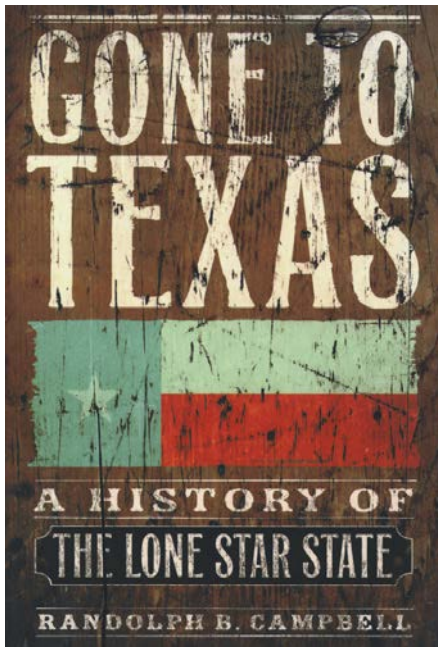

"Texans and Their History in the New Millennium"

Clements Center Visiting Scholar Series

Reception at 5:30

Lecture at 6:00

Book signing at 7:00

Historians often speak of discovering a "usable past," a history that explains the present and offers suggestions for the future. What is the "usable past" of Texas as it enters the twenty-first century? Randolph B. Campbell's new book, Gone to Texas: A History of the Lone Star State, offers a distinct point of view on this question. The author will discuss the primary themes in his book and answer questions from the audience.

Gone to Texas engagingly tells the story of the Lone Star State, from the arrival of humans in the Panhandle more than 10,000 years ago to the opening of the twenty-first century. Focusing on the state's successive waves of immigrants, the book offers an inclusive view of the vast array of Texans who, often in conflict with each other and always in a struggle with the land, created a history and an idea of Texas. Book signing at 7:00

Resurrecting scores of little-known images Print the Legend: Photography and American West offers engaging tales of ambitious photographic adventurers, missing photographs, and misinterpreted images. Chronicling both the history of a place and the history of a medium, this book tells the story of how Americans first came to understand western photographs and, consequently, to envision their expanding nation. (Yale University Press)

Grand Ballroom, 3rd floor, Umphrey Lee Center 3300 Dyer St. & Hillcrest Ave.

Parking on Dyer St. or in Heroy lot north of Dallas Hall at 3225 University Ave.
or at Airline Garage, corner of Daniel & Airline

Both events are free and open to the public. We would appreciate knowing you are planning to attend. Please call 214-768-3684 or email swcenter@smu.edu for reservations.
