CONFERRING OF HONORARY DEGREES

At the beginning of its fiftieth anniversary year, the University, through its Faculty and Trustees, especially honors nine men and women who are outstanding in the personal and philanthropic services they have rendered to Southern Methodist University and to the Southwest.

WILLIAM A. BLAKLEY, Doctor of Laws

Lawyer son of the great Southwest, he stands firmly on the soil whence comes the wealth of nature's God; yet visionary; as men fly above the clouds, he thinks back to ancient men preserving ancient truths; but forward, southward even to the Andes and the pampas, striving ever toward the community of nations and a lawful and peaceful order of men.

Presented by Professor Arthur Leon Harding

JOSEPH STERLING BRIDWELL, Doctor of Humane Letters

Humanitarian and conservator, his support has spanned the gathering of some of the finest editions of the printed sources of western civilization to programs of renewing the soil, judicious usage of petroleum resources, improvement of stock bloodlines, shelter for homeless youth and their continued education, and the work of his church.

Presented by Professor Decherd H. Turner, Jr.

ELLA COCHRUM FONDREN, Doctor of Laws

Distinguished philanthropist; devout churchwoman and leader in all causes devoted to the welfare of humanity; honored by us when we honor her will to do as well as to give; she finds God's work the cradle of her motivation and she is the Lady First in the hearts of health, education, and Christian institutions.

Presented by Lester L. Keyser, M.D.

LULA FLATEAU GOOCH, Doctor of Humane Letters

Distinguished descendant of a French family of the Republic of Texas; who loves and appreciates music and art, has understanding of the social issues of today; whose philanthropy and leadership have benefitted institutions of learning and research and art in her beloved Dallas, who quietly and consistently gives support to every worthy cause.

Presented by Provost-Emeritus Hemphill Hosford

STANLEY MARCUS, Doctor of Humane Letters

Merchant prince in the best tradition of the term, ardent devotee of the arts, scholar, gentleman, philanthropist, courageous defender of principle, and tireless seeker of quality, he has brought recognition to his city and to his nation, performing his deeds in business, in cultural pursuits, and in civic leadership with flair and with impeccable taste.

Presented by Vice President J. Keith Baker

ALGUR HURTLE MEADOWS, Doctor of Humane Letters

International executive, patron of the arts, his gifts and his concern for this University have placed this warm-hearted man among the immortals of this University's history. Thousands yet unborn, who down the years will walk through these portals, will continue to benefit from the love and devotion of this outstanding American.

Presented by Professor Kermit Houston Hunter

LOIS CRADDOCK PERKINS, Doctor of Laws

One with her late husband in love for the Church and in Christian philanthropy; a working churchwoman on local, national and world levels; mother, grandmother and great-grandmother; she is a steady inspiration to the hundreds of her spiritual sons in the Methodist ministry.

Presented by Professor Joseph Dillard Quillian, Jr.

ROBERT GERALD STOREY, Doctor of Civil Law

Dean Emeritus of the School of Law of Southern Methodist University; President of the Southwestern Legal Foundation; distinguished son of Texas; leader in the establishment of the World Rule of Law Conference; he has contributed a lifetime of service to the cause of improving the administration of justice.

Presented by Professor Charles O. Galvin

WILLIAM McFERRIN STOWE, Doctor of Laws

Bishop of The Methodist Church; pastor of churches in Texas and Oklahoma; staff member of the General Board of Education of The Methodist Church; delegate to various world conferences of Methodism; author of books and articles, he has consistently supported the cause of higher education in the church and has given impetus to the highest intellectual standards.

Presented by Professor Lewis Howard Grimes
