GENERAL INFORMATION

HISTORY

The School of Law was established by resolution of the Board of Trustees in February, 1925, and was formally opened the following September. In 1938 the Dallas School of Law, which had been established in 1925 by the Young Men's Christian Association, was merged with the School of Law of Southern Methodist University. Since that time the School of Law has operated a Day Division and an Evening Division. The School is a member of the Association of American Law Schools, an organization whose object is the maintenance of high standards in legal education, and is on the list of schools approved by the Council on Legal Education of the American Bar Association.

LOCATION

Southern Methodist University is situated within the city limits of University Park, approximately six miles from the business center of Dallas. This location offers distinct advantages for law students. City, County, State and Federal Courts are within a half-hour ride from the school, and are in session throughout the entire year. Students are encouraged to visit these courts as a part of their training in the School of Law.

LAW QUADRANGLE

The School of Law is housed in a new quadrangle situated on a beautifully landscaped plot of five acres on the northwest corner of the campus. The three air-conditioned buildings (pictured elsewhere in this bulletin) include Storey Hall, Florence Hall and the Lawyers Inn. Funds contributed by lawyers financed the construction of Lawyers Inn, and funds provided by businessmen made possible Storey Hall. A generous gift from Mr. Karl Hoblitzelle of Dallas enabled the University to completely remodel and refurbish the third building, now named Florence Hall in honor of Mr. Fred F. Florence, Dallas financier. The family of the late Maco Stewart, Sr., gave funds which made possible the beautiful courtroom named in his honor. The Lawyers Inn is a modern Inn of Court. It provides living quarters and dining facilities for seventy-five students, and contains a lounge and a recreation room as well as a faculty dining room and several guest rooms for visiting attorneys. Florence Hall contains the Law School classrooms, a courtroom, offices of the Legal Aid Clinic, study rooms and rooms for student activities. The main building, Storey Hall, houses the several libraries, the administrative and faculty offices of the Law School, offices of the Southwestern Legal Foundation, the Southwestern Law Journal, several seminar rooms, a large auditorium, a student lounge and a public lounge. The buildings are of modified Georgian architecture, conforming to the style of all permanent buildings on the campus. These facilities provide the Law School with a physical plant unsurpassed in the South or Southwest. The classrooms and courtroom are commodious and well appointed. The three large reading rooms in the main building provide a place for study and research under ideal conditions.
The School of Law

LAW LIBRARY

The Law Library, housed in Storey Hall, contains approximately 50,000 volumes, carefully selected to avoid unnecessary duplications and to insure the greatest possible usefulness. This includes all reported cases of the Federal Courts and practically all reported cases of the State Courts and all English reported cases from the time of Henry VIII. There are also collections of the reported cases from the principle countries of the British Commonwealth including Scotland, Australia, New Zealand and Canada. Accessions are being made at the rate of approximately 5,000 volumes a year, with special attention being given to materials in the fields of Oil and Gas, Taxation, Insurance, International Law, Comparative Law and Jurisprudence. Emphasis is also placed on Latin American legal publications. Codes and outstanding treatises have been acquired from most of the Latin American countries.

The statutory collection includes the current statute law of the United States and of all of the states. The rules, regulations and decisions of the administrative agencies of the federal government are kept current. The library has excellent collections of treatises, encyclopedias, digests, citators and loose-leaf services which make it a valuable working laboratory for the students. Several copies of all leading textbooks are available. There are many texts on the subjects of government, economics, international relations and business in the collection. Complete files of one hundred and thirty-five leading law periodicals are on hand and the library currently subscribes to three hundred and fifty-four periodicals.

Fondren Library, a handsomely appointed and air-conditioned building, houses the general library. It is arranged for maximum convenience and research. Its reading rooms are available to law students at all times.

OBJECTIVE OF THE SCHOOL

The objective of the School is the thorough training of its students in the science and method of the law. The rules and principles are studied in the light of their context, their purpose and their actual effect upon the social institutions of their time. Together with the understanding of the body of the law, there is sought to be imparted the ability to apply its rules and principles in a professional manner.

It is recognized that not all graduates of the School will practice law. Some will go into government service; some will become judges and legislators; others will pursue business careers. The course of instruction has been planned accordingly and is intended to develop a consciousness of the responsibility of the lawyer to society for the improvement of the law, both in its substance and in its administration.

METHOD OF INSTRUCTION

The case method of instruction, followed by the leading law schools of the country, is employed. This involves a thorough analysis of selected cases and statutes and the discussion of legal principles deduced therefrom. The students are thus introduced to the materials they will use in the practice of law and learn to make distinctions and to reason by analogy.

Every effort is made to keep the classes as small as possible in order that students may have the advantage of individual attention and close personal relations with their professors. Fifteen members of the faculty devote their entire time and energies to the work of the School and are thereby freely available to the students for consultation and advice in connection with their studies. It is believed that this is one of the most valuable features of law school study. In addition to the regular faculty, instruction in certain fields of law is given by active practitioners and lecturers chosen for their special fitness for the particular subjects.

PRACTICAL COURSES

Particular effort is made to train the students in the practical and procedural side of the law. Thus the students are regularly assigned the drafting of legal instruments in the academic courses where assignments are especially appropriate, as in the case of trusts and estates, contracts, corporations, property, among others. This (classroom) work is supplemented by such "how to do it" courses as Practice Court, Brief Writing and Oral Advocacy, Legal Writing, Legal Aid, and by work as student editors of the Southwestern Law Journal.

Practice Court. The School maintains a Practice Court under the direction and control of members of the faculty. The purpose is to give the students an opportunity to coordinate their knowledge of procedure and evidence with their knowledge of substantive law in the conduct of actually litigated controversies. This course is required.

The third-year class is divided into groups of two and a case is assigned to each group, one student representing the plaintiff and the other the defendant. The student lawyers must investigate the case, prepare the process and pleadings and carry the case to a final issue. Interlocutory hearings on motions and demurrers are held throughout the first semester and the students are required to draw the proper orders to be entered therein. Final issue on the facts is reached by the end of the Fall semester, and the Spring semester is devoted to the actual trials, with the students selecting the jury, examining the witnesses, preparing instructions and special issues, and taking all other steps normally taken during a trial. After a jury verdict has been rendered, losing counsel prepares a motion for a new trial which is heard as the final step in the case. This work is carried on in an elegantly appointed courtroom specially designed for this purpose.

Brief Writing and Oral Advocacy. In the second year the students are divided into groups of four, two as counsel for appellant and two as counsel for appellee. Each group is assigned a case based upon an actual case transcript. They prepare appellate briefs in the form prescribed by the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure. Oral arguments are then held before judges recruited from the Dallas Bar.

Legal Writing. All second-year students are required to take a course in legal writing. Here they study legal style, legal draftsmanship and actually draft memoranda and opinions on assigned points of law. A part of the time is spent on the preparation of legal writings for publications.

Legal Aid. In cooperation with the City-County Welfare Board and the Dallas Junior Bar Association, the School operates a Legal Aid Clinic under the supervision of a Faculty Director. All local cases must be cleared as charity cases by the City-County Welfare Board. Cases from out of the county come by referral from other legal aid clinics. The students interview the clients, prepare all the papers and work as assistants to members of the Junior Bar when the cases reach the stage of litigation. They are thus able to participate in the handling of legal problems and litigation in a realistic way. This work is open to selected third-year students just under the grade average necessary for law review editorship. For this work the School maintains a suite of four offices in the classroom building.

Southwestern Law Journal. Approximately twenty second- and third-year students, selected on the basis of high scholastic standing and literary ability, serve as student editors of the Law Journal. They engage in independent research under faculty supervision, and prepare comments and notes on current legal problems for prospective publication in the Journal.

Summer Program of Applied Legal Training. Students who satisfactorily complete the first two years of study may enroll in the Summer Program of Applied Legal Training. This program includes several credit practice seminars and a non-credit plan of internship. It is possible for students to participate to a limited extent in the credit practice seminars and to pursue the internship program.

Seminars are designed to give students experience in the actual techniques of law practice and are related to, and supplement, the series of practice courses given during the regular terms. Included are courses in such subjects as trial tactics, problems of proof, estate planning, administrative practice, federal practice, probate practice, and bankruptcy practice.

The internship program extends over a twelve-week period in the summer. Students are assigned for four weeks as law clerks to state trial and appellate judges or to federal, state or city attorneys, and for eight weeks as law clerks in law firms or corporate legal departments. One afternoon each week the students convene at the law school to hear lectures by practicing lawyers and judges on such topics as the fixing of fees, law office management, negotiation of claims, settlement of litigation, and legal ethics. A small compensation is paid to student participants.
ADMISSION

RECOMMENDED PRE-LEGAL COURSE

General. The School of Law does not prescribe a fixed course of pre-legal studies, but does examine each application for admission to determine the appropriateness of courses taken in light of the recommendations made herein.

Duration of Pre-Legal Course. It is recommended that the pre-legal student complete the requirements for a bachelor’s degree prior to enrollment in the School of Law. If this be not feasible, it is recommended that he complete in Southern Methodist University or in another college or university where the course is offered, the first three years of a six-year combination course in Law and Arts, or Law and Business Administration. In event the combination course is not available in the college or university attended, it is recommended that the student arrange his program so that his college work embraces courses substantially similar to those included in such a combination course. In any event the student must complete not less than 90 semester-hours of credit (see Credit Requirements).

Minimum Subject Requirements. So far as the student is free to elect courses in his pre-legal studies, he should select those best suited to equip him to occupy a prominent position in the cultural, social and business affairs of his community. The objective should be a well-rounded general education. Effective grasp of English grammar, rhetoric and composition is considered indispensable. Experience in debating will prove valuable. Students who have learned to use a typewriter will find this skill helpful. The pre-legal course should include not less than six (6) semester-hours in each of the following subjects: English Grammar and Composition; English Literature; Mathematics; English History; American History; Philosophy and Ethics; Economics; Political Science or Government; Accounting; and each of two natural sciences. If a foreign language is taken it should be Latin.

SIX-YEAR COMBINATION COURSES

Requirements. The College of Arts and Sciences and the School of Business Administration offer courses of study whereby the student may earn the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Business Administration, respectively, and the degree of Bachelor of Laws in six years. The specific requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts and of Bachelor of Business Administration under this plan are fixed by the faculties of the school or college concerned, and are stated in the bulletins issued by those schools. In general, the plans provide that student shall register for the first three years in the College of Arts and Sciences or the School of Business Adminis-
Admission

During the admission period, the student shall complete the specific course requirements for the degree sought and shall otherwise comply with the hour and grade requirements of that college or school. The student then registers in the School of Law for his fourth year of study. Upon the completion of two semesters of law study with a satisfactory grade average, the student who otherwise has complied with the requirements of the College of Arts and Sciences or the School of Business Administration becomes eligible for the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Business Administration. Upon completing the remaining two years of law study, and satisfying the requirements of the School of Law, the student becomes eligible for the degree of Bachelor of Laws.

Elective Courses. Election of courses under the six-year combination plan is somewhat restricted. So far as the student is free to elect courses, he should seek a well-rounded program, incorporating therein to the greatest extent practicable such of the following subjects as are not prescribed: English History; American History; Mathematics; Literature; Economics; Philosophy and Ethics; Political Science or Government; and Accounting. If a foreign language is taken it should be Latin. Particular attention should be devoted to the development of facility and style in the clear and forceful use of the English language.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

Admission by Selection. Admission to the School of Law is by selection based upon the academic record of the applicant and other available data. The School reserves the right to reject any applicant without statement of reason.

Credit Requirements. To be considered for admission, an applicant must have been granted a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university, or must have completed not less than ninety (90) semester-hours of credit toward a bachelor's degree, earned in residence in an accredited college or university. Credit earned by correspondence is not acceptable in the ninety semester-hour minimum requirement.

Course Requirements. The ninety (90) hour minimum requirement stated above shall be exclusive of credits earned in non-theory courses in military science, physical education, hygiene, domestic arts, vocal and instrumental music, teaching methods and techniques, shop work, vocational agriculture, flight training, stenography, salesmanship, dramatics, advertising, or other courses without substantive content appropriate to the study of law; except that required courses in military science and physical education may be included. Courses in Business Law and related fields are not considered desirable pre-legal study.
Grade Requirements. The applicant must have a weighted average of not less than C in all work of college grade attempted and in which a grade, either passing or failing, has been recorded, except that courses for which pre-legal credit is not allowed, as stated in the subparagraph next preceding, are not included in computing the average. Where courses have been repeated, both grades are included in the computation.

Dates of Admission. Beginning students will be admitted in the Fall Semester only.

Application for Admission. Application for admission should be made well in advance of the date of intended enrollment. Application must be in writing, preferably on forms supplied by the School of Law. The application must be supported by transcripts from all colleges attended by the applicant. A person filing an application while still enrolled in his pre-legal studies should file transcripts showing the pre-legal work completed to date, and the courses in which he is enrolled at the date of application.

Readmission of Former Students

Students who withdraw from the School of Law while in good standing will be readmitted subject to the following limitations.

Students who withdraw before completing their first semester or term of law study may apply for readmission in the Fall Semester only. Students who completed one semester or term may apply for readmission at the beginning of the Spring Semester only. Students who completed two or more semesters or terms prior to withdrawal may apply for readmission at the beginning of either semester or a summer session.

Students who apply for readmission within the following periods will be readmitted without reexamination of their entrance credentials: Those who withdrew before earning twelve semester-hours credit, within twenty-four calendar months from the date of withdrawal; those who withdrew after earning twelve or more semester-hours credit, within forty-eight calendar months from the date of withdrawal. In computing these periods there will not be included any period or periods in which the student was on active duty with any of the armed services of the United States, or any period in which the student was licensed and engaged in the practice of law in this or another state. Students who apply for readmission after the expiration of the periods stated will be required to comply with the requirements for admission and graduation in effect at the date of readmission.
Admission

Admission to Advanced Standing

Persons Eligible. A student who has completed successfully a part of the law course in another law school (which was at the time of such study a member of the Association of American Law Schools, or approved by the Council on Legal Education of the American Bar Association) may apply for admission with advanced standing. The student must also have met the admission requirements of this law school at the time he began the study of law. Students who have been excluded from or are on probation at another law school are ineligible.

Dates of Admission. Transfer students who have completed two or more terms of work in another law school may be admitted in the summer session or in either semester of the long session. An applicant who has completed only one term elsewhere should submit a list of law courses taken and inquire concerning possible dates of admission.

Application. Application for admission with advanced standing must be made in writing. It must be supported by transcripts (in duplicate) from all colleges and law schools previously attended. Good standing in the law school last attended may be established by letter from the Dean of that school, either filed with the application or submitted at the time of enrollment in this school.

Advanced Credit. Advanced credit for work completed in another law school will be determined by the Dean of the School of Law. Advanced credit will not be granted for a course completed in another law school with a grade below C or its equivalent.

Minimum Residence Requirement. A student admitted with advanced standing may not qualify for a degree from the School of Law until he shall have completed satisfactorily at least two semesters' study in the Day Division or three semesters' study in the Evening Division of the School of Law.

Admission to Graduate Courses

The requirements for admission to graduate courses are set out on page 32 infra.

Auditors

Members of the State Bar of Texas or graduates of an approved law school may be enrolled as Auditors in specific courses. Auditors take no examination and receive no credit for work taken.
TUITION AND FEES*

DAY DIVISION

Tuition. Tuition fees are computed at the rate of $25 for each semester-hour of work taken, with a maximum charge in the Day Division of $250 per semester of 16 weeks, and $168.75 for a summer session.

Student Activity Fee. All regular students in the University, including law students in the Day Division, pay the Student Activity Fee of $13.00 each semester. This fee is assessed by the Students' Association and pays for tickets to all athletic contests on the campus, for the students' annual, the semi-weekly newspaper, and other activities in which the students are interested. In addition, each student is assessed $1 per semester and 75 cents per summer session to be used in the interest of the Student Bar Association. A locker fee of $1 per semester and 75 cents per summer session is collected at the time of registration. The funds from these fees become a part of the Student Loan Fund.

Student Union Building Fee. All regular students in the University, including law students in the Day Division, pay a Student Union Building Fee of $7.50 per semester and $4.50 for a summer session.

Library Deposit. All students make a library deposit of $5 at the beginning of the school year. It is returned to the student at the end of the year less any deductions for damages or fines, if claimed by June 30.

Payment of Accounts. The tuition and other fees of non-veterans are payable at the beginning of each semester, but arrangements may be made with the Cashier of the University to pay in instalments for a small carrying charge. The Veterans' Administration is billed for the tuition, fees, and books of eligible veterans, except Korean Veterans, except the library deposit, which is made by the student. A charge of $2 is made for late payment of accounts or for late registrations.

Refund of Tuition Fees. If a student should matriculate in the School of Law and, for a good reason, be unable to attend classes, all of his fees except $10 will be refunded. If a student matriculates but leaves the University within the first three weeks after the first day of registration of a semester or summer session, one-half of his tuition and fees will be refunded. After the third week no refunds.

*All rates are subject to change at the beginning of any semester.
Tuition and Fees

are allowed. Refunds are allowed only upon honorable dismissal by the Dean of the School of Law, and must be applied for at the date of withdrawal.

EVENING DIVISION

Tuition. Tuition fees are computed at the rate of $25 for each semester-hour of work taken, with a maximum charge in the Evening Division of $187.50 per semester of 16 weeks, and $125 for a summer session.

The Student Activity Fee and the Student Union Building Fee are optional for students in the Evening Division. However, each student is required to pay $1 per semester and 75 cents per summer session to be used in the interest of the Student Bar Association. A locker fee of $1 per semester and 75 cents per summer session is collected at the time of registration. The funds from these fees become a part of the Student Loan Fund.

The Library Deposit is the same as in the Day Division.

Payment of Accounts. Tuition and other fees are payable at the beginning of each semester or summer session. Students in the Evening Division may arrange, without penalty, to pay one-third of their fees at the time of registration, one-third during the fourth week of instruction, and one-third during the eighth week of instruction. A charge of $2 is made for late payment of accounts or for late registration.

Refund of Tuition Fees. If a student should matriculate in the School of Law and, for a good reason, be unable to attend classes, all of his fees except $10 will be refunded. If a student matriculates but leaves the University within the first four weeks after the first day of registration of a semester or summer session, two-thirds of his tuition and fees will be refunded. If he withdraws in the fifth to eighth week inclusive, one-third of his tuition and fees will be refunded. After the eighth week no refunds are allowed. Refunds are allowed only upon honorable dismissal by the Dean of the School of Law and must be applied for at the date of withdrawal.

GRADUATE COURSES

The fees for graduate courses are set forth on page 33 infra.

AUDITORS

Members of the State Bar of Texas or graduates of an approved law school taking courses without examination or credit will be charged a fee of $40 per course, without reference to the number of semester-hours involved. This fee is payable in advance and is not refundable. Undergraduates are not permitted to audit courses.
The School of Law

AIDS AND AWARDS TO STUDENTS

SCHOLARSHIPS

LAW SCHOOL SCHOLARSHIPS. The scholarships listed below are available to students in the School of Law who maintain a superior record in their law school work and who are in need of financial assistance. Preference is given to applicants who hold the A.B. or a similar degree.

The Rhea Memorial Scholarship, established by friends of the late Professor W. A. Rhea, first member of the faculty of the School of Law. Student locker rentals are added to the principal of this fund each year. Stipend varies according to need and funds available.

The Coke Endowed Scholarship, established by a gift of $5,000 from Mr. and Mrs. Rosser J. Coke of Dallas. Stipend $200 or more depending on funds available.

The Dallas Lawyers Wives Club Endowed Scholarship, established by a substantial gift from the club. Funds are still being added to the principal and for the present no awards are being made.

The Golden Scholarship, established by Hawkins W. Golden for the purpose of aiding needy and deserving students. Awards are made from the principal of the fund.

The Alumni Scholarship, established by the Southern Methodist University Law Association, composed of ex-students of the School. The annual stipend is $500 and the scholarship is normally awarded to a senior student who has made an outstanding record in his first two years.

Other Scholarship Awards are made by the Scholarship Committee of the School of Law from funds included in the annual budget in varying amounts depending upon need and funds available.

REGIONAL LAW SCHOLARSHIPS. Twenty Regional Scholarships are available each year. These carry a stipend of $500 each and are awarded on a competitive basis to select graduates of accredited colleges in the states of Arkansas, Kansas, Louisiana, Missouri, Nebraska, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas, who are accepted in the first year class each year. Applicants are interviewed and recommended by special committees of distinguished lawyers and jurists in the several states, with final selections made by the faculty of the School of Law.

Applications for or inquiry concerning any of the scholarships listed above should be addressed to Chairman, Scholarship Committee, School of Law.
Aids and Awards to Students

GENERAL SCHOLARSHIPS. Students in the School of Law who do not hold the A.B. or other bachelor’s degree are eligible for scholarships administered by the University Committee on Scholarships. These include the following:

University Scholarships, which are awarded automatically to the highest ranking students in the various schools of the University. In estimating rank the Committee considers the entire University record of the applicant. Holders of University Scholarships are granted part or full tuition (up to $250 per semester) in accordance with their need and the funds available.

Undergraduate Scholarships, which are awarded, if funds permit after the needs of University Scholars are met, to students who have completed one year in Southern Methodist University with a satisfactory scholastic record and who have a definite need for aid. Though preference is given to the student having the highest scholastic ranking, the Committee’s policy is to help as many deserving students as its resources will allow.

LaVerne Noyes Scholarships, five or more in number, are available each year to students who are citizens of the United States and either were engaged in and honorably discharged from the military service of the United States in World War I or are descended by blood from one who so served. These scholarships have a value up to $250 per semester. They were established by the estate of the late LaVerne Noyes of Chicago, Illinois, in 1937.

Correspondence concerning the University, Undergraduate, and LaVerne Noyes Scholarships should be addressed to the Director of Scholarships, Southern Methodist University.

REGULATIONS. All scholarships are credited toward the student’s tuition charges and fees. Holders of scholarships are required to cooperate in the observance and enforcement of University regulations and are expected to devote their full time to their college studies. Permission to engage in outside employment during the school year must be obtained in advance. Scholarship holders are required to maintain the academic record necessary for continuance in good standing in the School of Law. No one may hold more than one scholarship at a time.

TUITION AWARDS

Students in the School of Law are eligible for the following awards.

Music Tuition Awards, twenty in number, open to competent musicians who serve as members of the University Band. Value $100 per semester. Application should be made to the Director of the Band or to the Dean of the School of Music.

Athletic Tuition Awards, twenty in number, available to outstanding students who represent the University in various sports. Value $250 per semester. Applications should be made to the Director of Athletics of the University.

Minister's Family Tuition Awards, given to the wife or minor children of a minister of any denomination engaged in active pastoral work, and to minor children of superannuated or deceased ministers. Value $145.50 per semester. Applications should be made to the Director of Scholarships of the University.

Regulations. Tuition awards are credited toward the payment of the student’s tuition and fees. Holders of these awards are required to maintain the academic average necessary for continuance in good standing in the school attended. They are required to register for a normal student load. Each student holding a tuition award (except wives and minor children of ministers) is required to do a reasonable amount of work for the University (eight hours per week for full tuition and a proportionate amount for less than full tuition).

LOANS

Loans are available to deserving students in any school of the University who are in need of financial assistance and who have a scholastic average equal to the minimum average required for graduation in the particular school. They are made ordinarily only for tuition and fees, but loans from the William Wallace Taxis and the Blanche M. Taxis funds are available for personal necessities. Students needing loans may obtain application blanks from the Dean of Students.

The Law School maintains a separate loan fund from which loans are made to students in their second or third year. Such loans are usually limited to amounts needed for tuition.

PRIZES

Mr. J. Woodall Rodgers of the Dallas Bar has established a prize to be awarded annually to the member of the graduating class who has maintained the highest overall average for the three years. The prize is a handsome gold medal.

The Dallas Lawyers’ Wives Club makes a cash award of $100 to the student in the second year class attaining the highest scholastic average.
The law firm of Carrington, Gowan, Johnson and Walker presents a gold watch to the outstanding student in the first year class.

The Bureau of National Affairs awards a year's subscription to United States Law Week to the graduating senior who has shown the greatest improvement in scholarship in his third year.

The Vernon Law Book Company presents annually a set of Vernon's Annotated Texas Statutes to the student editor of the Southwestern Law Journal who makes the outstanding contribution to the Journal, both quality and quantity considered.

The firm of Thompson, Knight, Wright and Simmons gives each year a cash award of $100 to the student editor who writes the best original comment published in the Law Journal.

The firm of Turner, Atwood, White, McLane and Francis gives each year a cash award of $100 to the member of the class in Taxation who prepares the best original paper on a subject to be approved by the Professor of that course.

Roy H. Callahan of the Dallas Bar gives each year a cash award of $100 to the member of the class in Corporations who prepares the best original paper on a subject to be approved by the Professor of that course.

The firm of Kilgore and Kilgore gives each year a cash award of $100 to the member of the class in Oil and Gas who prepares the best original paper on a subject to be approved by the Professor of that course.

The firm of Butler, Binion, Rice and Cook gives each year a cash award of $100 to the member of the class in Insurance who prepares the best original paper on a subject to be approved by the Professor of that course.

The American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers conducts each year the Nathan Burkan Memorial Competition. The writer of the best paper submitted by a student in the Law School on some subject dealing with Copyright Law is awarded a prize of $100, and becomes eligible to compete for the National Award of $500 for the outstanding essay submitted in the competition.

The firm of Burford, Ryburn, Hincks and Ford presents a handsomely-engraved sterling silver plaque in a sterling silver frame to the Law School winning the Regional Moot Court Competition each year that it is held at the Southwestern Legal Center. The names of the three student attorneys representing the winning school are engraved on the plaque.
The Arthur A. Everts Trophy is awarded each year during Lawyers Week to the winning counsel in the Senior Class Club Argument.

The Vernon Law Book Company donates to each of the three winners in the Senior Case Club Argument a choice of McCormick and Ray, Texas Law of Evidence; Franki, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, or some other one volume publication.

The Bancroft-Whitney Company awards each year to the ex-service man student making the highest three-year average a set of Jones, Commentaries on the Law of Evidence (6 volumes).

Bound reprints of selected topics from American Jurisprudence are presented by the publishers to the student writing the best examination paper in each of the following courses: Administrative Law, Agency, Bailments (Personal Property), Bankruptcy (Creditor's Rights), Bills and Notes, Corporations, Conflict of Laws, Constitutional Law, Contracts, Equity, Evidence, Insurance, Labor Law, Mortgages (Security), Pleading (Procedure II), Taxation and Trusts.

Law students are also eligible to compete for the R. E. L. Saner Award in Oratory, a gold watch offered annually in a contest begun by the late R. E. L. Saner, LL.D., of Dallas.

THE STUDENT WHO EARS HIS WAY

The faculty believes the working student should be given a training as thorough as that afforded to others. The regular curriculum is arranged and the work assigned on the assumption that students will give substantially all their time to work in the School. Consequently only the exceptional student reasonably may expect to complete the work required for the degree in the three-year period, if he is compelled to devote a part of his time to employment for self-support. Experience shows that the student of average ability who attempts to carry the full legal curriculum and a large amount of outside employment finds the burden too heavy, with consequent injury to health or to the thoroughness of his professional preparation. The faculty requires that a student who must devote more than a slight portion of his time to outside employment frame his program of law studies so that he shall complete the course in law in four or more years rather than in three. The curriculum is arranged so that such a plan may be carried out.

Students who are required to be substantially or wholly self-supporting while in law school are advised to enroll in the Evening Division.
HEALTH SERVICE PRIVILEGES

The University provides a limited health service. All students living in the University dormitories or enrolled for regular work in the University are entitled to the following health services: a health examination and smallpox vaccination by the University physicians, an unlimited number of consultations with the University physicians during office hours at their Health Center offices, and conferences and treatments by the nurses at such other times as may be designated. These privileges are extended to all ambulatory students irrespective of residence. Students living in the University dormitories, or taking all meals in University dormitories, are also entitled to hospitalization in the Health Center with nurse and doctor in charge. All students living in private homes assigned to them by the University may obtain hospitalization service for $4.00 per day as far as available space will permit. Other eligible students may obtain the same care for $5.00 per day.

A maximum of seven days hospitalization without cost will be allowed to students in case of serious illness during each semester of the long session of the University and four days for each six weeks of the summer session. A charge of $4.00 per day will be made to students who must remain in the hospital beyond the above mentioned periods of time.

Every student attending the University must have a physical examination by a University physician.

Physical examinations will be given at the beginning of each semester or summer session.

LIVING ACCOMMODATIONS

The Lawyers Inn provides residence accommodations for 75 unmarried law students in single and double suites. Rates per semester are $125 per man in a double room; $150 per man in a single room. Preference in the choice of rooms is given to graduates, third-year, second-year and first-year students, in that order. Applications for residence must be made on the form provided by the Lawyers Inn and must be accompanied by a deposit of $25. Approval of application is not given until the applicant is accepted for admission to the Law School. Applications for the academic year 1954-1955 will not be accepted before March 1, 1954. A bulletin describing the Lawyers Inn may be obtained by writing The Director, Lawyers Inn, Southern Methodist University.

Rooms for women are available in the several dormitories at $125 per semester.* Inquiries concerning married students’ and women's living accommodations should be addressed to the Director of Housing, Southern Methodist University.

All students living in dormitories are required to take their meals there. Cost of board is $200 per semester.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS AND ACTIVITIES

_The S. M. U. Student Bar Association_, composed of all students in the School, has as its general purpose the promotion of the interests of the student body. The Association conducts bi-monthly forums at which leaders in public and professional life discuss topics of current interest; it also sponsors each semester a social function intended to encourage student acquaintance.

_The Order of the Woolsack_ is a local scholastic honor society to which not more than the highest ten per cent of each graduating class may be elected by vote of the faculty.

_The Barristers_, a general service organization of fifteen law students elected on the basis of scholarship and leadership, has as its purpose to undertake various projects for the benefit of the law students and the School.

_The Advocates_ is an organization composed of all students residing in the Lawyers Inn. It holds dinner meetings to which prominent lawyers and judges are invited for addresses on interesting legal topics. It also maintains an active interest in the social welfare of all residents.

_The Southwestern Law Journal_ is a quarterly journal of legal scholarship published by the School of Law. One issue of the journal each year consists principally of articles relating to the several aspects of a single significant problem of the jurisprudence of Texas or the administration of justice in Texas courts. Another issue is devoted to a review of important decisions of the Texas Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals during the preceding year. It also includes a commentary on the legislative enactments in years when the legislature is in session. The other two issues are of the conventional type containing leading articles, comments, recent case notes and book reviews.

_The Senior Case Club_ is composed of six third-year law students selected each year by the faculty on the basis of scholastic achievement and effectiveness in oral presentation to serve as counsel in a moot case argued on Lawyers' Day. The case is heard and decided, on the basis of printed briefs and oral argument, by the Supreme Court of Texas, invited to the University annually for the occasion.
The Regional Moot Court Competition is held each November. Law Schools from Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Arkansas and New Mexico are eligible to compete. Prominent lawyers and judges serve as judges in the preliminary and final rounds. The three representatives of this law school are chosen in a series of Moot Court arguments held in October. This competition is a part of the National Moot Court Competition sponsored by the Association of the Bar of the City of New York. The winners of the Regional Competition go to the finals in New York City.

Chapters of two national legal fraternities have been established at the School—the John Hemphill Senate of Delta Theta Phi and the Roger Brooke Taney Chapter of Phi Alpha Delta. Alpha Psi Chapter of the Kappa Beta Pi International Legal Sorority is active for the benefit of women students.

Upon payment of the Student Activity Fee at the time of registration, law students become entitled to the usual privileges in connection with intercollegiate athletic events, the lecture and concert series of the Community Course, the dramatic productions of the Arden Club, the several student publications, and the intramural athletic program in which law school teams compete.

Placement of Graduates

The School of Law, recognizing its obligation to aid its graduates in securing legal positions, has established a Placement Office, with a member of the faculty serving as Director. This office contacts potential employers and directs graduates toward suitable job opportunities. Its services are available to graduates at all times without expense and they are urged to register with the Director.
THE UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM 1954-1955

The School operates on the plan of two semesters of sixteen weeks each and a summer session of eleven weeks. For 1954-1955 the dates of these sessions are: Summer Session, June 4 to August 26, 1954; Fall Semester, September 17, 1954 to January 26, 1955; Spring Semester, January 27 to May 29, 1955.

All Day Division students who began the study of law after July 1, 1950, will be required to spend a minimum of six semesters and one summer session in residence (at least 100 weeks) and complete a total of 84 semester-hours of work. The required summer’s residence must follow the first year’s study except in rare instances where permission is obtained to use the second summer.

All Evening Division students who began the study of law after July 1, 1950, will be required to spend a minimum of eight semesters and two summer sessions in residence (at least 134 weeks) and complete a total of 84 semester-hours of work. The summer session residence must follow each of the first two years except in rare instances where permission is obtained to use a later summer.

For the year 1954-1955 the faculty proposes to offer the courses listed below with the arabic numeral opposite each course indicating the number of semester-hours of credit. Every effort will be made to adhere to this program, but intervening circumstances may necessitate minor changes. Persons interested in particular courses should inquire about them shortly before the beginning of the semester or session for which they are announced.

THE GRADUATE PROGRAM

The program of graduate instruction is designed to accomplish the following objectives: (1) afford intensive training on the graduate level in the fields of law which have become highly specialized in modern urban practice, especially in the southwestern region; (2) broaden and deepen the student's understanding of the philosophy and history of law and of the administration of justice; (3) encourage research and creative writing in the law and related fields; (4) offer specialized instruction to practicing lawyers as a part of the plan for continuing education of the Bar. The primary aim will be preparation for more productive careers in the private practice of law and in the public service.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

CANDIDATES FOR DEGREES

Each applicant for admission to candidacy for a degree must be: a graduate of an approved American Law School and also hold a college degree from an accredited college or university; or a graduate of a foreign law school of standing comparable to those approved by the Council on Legal Education of the American Bar Association, by the Inter-American Bar Association or by other appropriate agencies.

APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION

Graduate students will be admitted at the beginning of any semester. No special form of application is required. A letter of application for admission to graduate study should be sent to the Chairman of the Committee on Graduate Studies, School of Law, Southern Methodist University, and should be accompanied by transcripts of the applicant's college and law school records and an unmounted photograph. No application fee is required.

DEGREES

Graduate students will select their programs of study after consultation with the Chairman of the Committee on Graduate Studies.

Master of Laws (L.L.M.) To receive the degree of Master of Laws the candidate must meet the following requirements:

(1) Residence in the School of Law for not less than two semesters if a full-time student, and not less than four semesters if a part-time student.

(2) Completion of a sufficient number of graduate courses to make a total of at least twelve semester-hours, with a minimum
VIEWS OF THE LAW QUADRANGLE

The School of Law is housed in three air-conditioned buildings, recently constructed with funds secured largely through the efforts of the Southwestern Legal Foundation. Storey Hall houses the law library, administrative and faculty offices of the law school and offices of the Foundation. It has three reading rooms, a large auditorium, lounge, student locker room and several graduate seminar rooms. The Lawyers Inn provides living quarters and dining facilities for seventy-five law students. Florence Hall contains the law school classrooms, practice courtroom, legal aid clinic, study rooms and rooms for student activities.

grade of 80 on each course. Undergraduate courses may be taken where approved by the Committee on Graduate Studies, but in no event will they be counted for more than two hours toward the total requirement of twelve.

(3) Completion of at least two courses (four semester-hours) in the cultural fields, such as Law in Society or International Law. These courses are counted toward the twelve-hour requirement.

(4) Preparation of a dissertation, written under the direction of a professor. This dissertation must be approved by both the Professor and the Committee on Graduate Studies, and be in publishable form. It must be submitted at least 60 days before the date on which degrees are awarded.

(5) All requirements must be completed within a period of three years from the date of initial registration as a graduate student.

Since one of the primary aims of the graduate program is to foster research and encourage creative writing, it is contemplated that the six courses (twelve semester-hours) will require only approximately half of the student’s time, and that the other half will be devoted to the dissertation. In line with this, candidates for degrees will not be permitted to register for more than three courses in one semester if full-time and for not more than two courses if part-time. Enrollment in each graduate course will be limited to fifteen students.

Master of Laws in Oil and Gas Law (LL.M.) The requirements for this degree are the same as those for the Master of Laws, except that the candidate must complete at least two graduate courses in the field of Oil and Gas Law and write his dissertation in the field.

Master of Laws in Taxation (LL.M.) The requirements for this degree are the same as those for the Master of Laws except that the candidate must complete at least two graduate courses in the field of Taxation and write his dissertation in that field.

Master of Laws in Comparative Law (LL.M.) The requirements for this degree include the completion of twenty-six semester-hours of graduate instruction, distributed as follows: Comparative Law, twenty hours; International Law, four hours; Jurisprudence, two hours. A dissertation is not required. Students enrolled in this program must have a reading knowledge of the Spanish language.

FEES

The fee for graduate courses is $42 for each semester-hour of work taken, with a maximum charge of $250 per semester. Auditors are not admitted to graduate courses. Other fees are the same as those listed for undergraduate students.
FELLOWSHIPS

Two graduate fellowships have been established. One is open to candidates for the LL.M. in Taxation and one to candidates for the LL.M. in Oil and Gas Law. The stipend of each fellowship is $1,500. Each holder of a fellowship will be required to pay full tuition and fees. Applications for fellowships should be directed to the Chairman of the Committee on Graduate Studies.

LAW INSTITUTE OF THE AMERICAS

The Law Institute of the Americas was established in 1952 to promote good will and improve relations among the peoples of the Americas through the study of the comparative laws, institutions, and governments of the American Republics, and to train lawyers in the handling of legal matters pertaining to the nations of the Western Hemisphere.

From fifteen to twenty fellowships are awarded each year to graduates of approved law schools in North, Central, or South America. Applicants are required to have two years of experience in practice or teaching, or the equivalent. The LL.M. in Comparative Law is conferred upon those who satisfactorily complete the one-year course of instruction. Applications for fellowships should be sent to the Director, Law Institute of the Americas.

There were seventeen lawyers in each of the first two classes of the Law Institute. The following countries have been represented: Argentina, Bolivia, Brazil, Canada, Chile, Colombia, Costa Rica, Ecuador, Guatemala, Mexico, Nicaragua, Peru, the United States, and Venezuela.

The program which is conducted as an integral part of the Graduate Division, consists of seminars in the following subjects: International Law, World Law, American International Conventions, Private International Law, Anglo-American Law, Latin-American Legal Philosophy, Comparative Law Principles, American Constitutions, Comparative Commercial Law, Comparative Labor and Welfare Legislation, and Comparative Natural Resources Law.
PROGRAM OF INSTRUCTION, 1954-1955

cupation, legal assistance and military affairs.
ADMINISTRATIVE RULES AND REGULATIONS

REGISTRATION

Registration Periods. Students who fail to register during the announced registration periods will be charged a late registration fee of $2.00. No registration will be permitted after the close of the tenth day of instruction in a semester, or after the close of the fifth day of instruction in a summer session.

Minimum and Maximum Hours. Unless a lesser number of hours will meet residence and graduation requirements, minimum registration is: 10 semester-hours per semester or 7 semester-hours per summer session in the Day Division; 6 semester-hours per semester or 4 semester-hours per summer session in the Evening Division. Maximum registration is: 15 semester-hours per semester or 10 semester-hours per summer session in the Day Division; 10 semester-hours per semester or 6 semester-hours per summer session (except that the Dean for good cause may permit registration not to exceed 12 semester-hours per semester or 8 semester-hours per summer session) in the Evening Division.

Class Attendance Without Registration. Attendance in classes is prohibited unless a student is registered in the course either as a regular student or as an auditor.

Adding and Dropping Courses. Courses may be added or dropped only with the written approval of the Dean. If a course is discontinued without the written approval of the Dean, a failing grade (WF) will be entered. Adding of courses will not be permitted after the close of the tenth day of instruction in a semester or after the close of the fifth day of instruction in a summer session. A course may be dropped without penalty during the first three weeks of a semester or the first two weeks of a summer session; in any course dropped thereafter the student will receive a failing grade (WF).

CLASSROOM WORK AND ATTENDANCE

Classroom Work. The instructor may, with the consent of the Dean, drop a student from a course for poor classroom work done therein or for improper conduct in the classroom. In such case the student will receive a failing grade (WF) in the course.

Absences. Leaves of absence are not permitted and excuses for absences are not accepted. A student registering late is charged for absences from all class sessions prior to the date of registration. No penalty is assessed for the first ten hours of class absences in any one semester in all courses taken, but for each additional hour's absence a student's credit toward graduation will be diminished by 1/15 of 1 semester-hour (absences incurred in courses which are dropped or failed, or in which the final examination is not permitted to be taken on account of excessive absences, will not be counted in computing this penalty). A student will not be permitted to take the final examination in a course from which he has been absent more than 1/4 of the class-hours, regardless of the cause of such absences. In such case a failing grade (WF) is entered.

Absences from Quizzes. A student who fails to take a previously announced quiz may not continue the course unless excused by the Dean for good cause shown in writing (in advance if possible). If a student is excused from a quiz his grade in the course will be determined as though the quiz had not been scheduled.

Absences from Examinations. A student unable to take a final examination at the time scheduled, because of illness or other unavoidable cause must, as early as possible (in advance if practicable), notify the Dean in writing of such absence and the reason therefor. The Dean, in conference with the instructor, will pass upon the reason and notify the student of his decision. If the reason be found sufficient, the student may take the examination with the class when it is next given. For good cause, the Dean may authorize a special examination at a time to be fixed by the instructor.

GRADEx AND CREDxTS

The minimum passing grade is 60. The final grade in a course is based upon written examinations and other required written work. No final examination paper will be regraded or returned to the student. Re-examination is not authorized. A student who fails to pass a required subject may repeat the course but is not required to do so except where failure is due to dropping or being excluded from the course.

D Grades. D grades are between 60 and 69, both inclusive. The total of D-grade work which a student may count toward a law degree in any scholastic year (two semesters) or summer session shall not exceed 1/3 of the total hours for which he is registered during the period involved. A student may, with permission of the Dean and the instructor, repeat a subject in which he has a final grade between 60 and 69, but by so doing waives all right to have the grade theretofore made in such subject counted toward his degree.

Method of Computing Averages. The grade in each course will be weighted in proportion to the semester-hours credit assigned to the course. In computing the average there will be included failures from dropped courses and the grades from all other courses in which the student has taken the final examination or received a final grade, regardless of whether credit in a particular course is required to meet the minimum requirements for graduation. Where a course is repeated both grades will be entered in computing the overall average.
Where the student receives a failing grade (WF) because of drop-ing or being excluded from a course, that grade will be entered as 40 in computing his average.

RESIDENCE

Day Division: A candidate for graduation must have been in residence for not less than six semesters and one summer session (at least 100 weeks). To constitute residence in the Day Division the candidate must have been registered for not less than 10 semester-hours in a semester or for not less than 7 semester-hours in a summer ses-session, and must have passed not less than 9 semester-hours in a semester or not less than 6 semester-hours in a summer session.

Evening Division: A candidate for graduation must have been in residence for not less than eight semesters and two summer sessions (at least 134 weeks). To constitute residence in the Evening Division, the candidate must have been registered for and passed not less than 6 semester-hours in a semester or 4 semester-hours in a summer session.

If a student is registered for but fails to pass the minimum number of hours required for residence, he will be granted fractional residence credit in proportion to the amount of work passed.
Residence cannot be earned in repeated courses if earned when the course was first taken.

Where a student transfers from one Division to the other, one semester's residence in the Evening Division will be considered as 3/4 of a semester in the Day Division; and one semester's residence in the Day Division will be considered 4/3 of a semester in the Evening Division.

ACADEMIC FAILURE AND PROBATION

In the following Regulation, "semester" shall be construed to include a summer session of 10 or more weeks; "upperclassman" shall be construed to mean one who has completed two semesters with an overall grade average of 70 or more. For the method of computing grade averages, see page 47.
AUTOMATIC EXCLUSION

First Year Students

1. Any Day Division student whose overall grade average at the end of the first semester is less than 60 shall be excluded automatically. He may be readmitted in a subsequent fall semester as a beginning student. Any other student may withdraw voluntarily at the end of the first semester, and may reenter in a subsequent fall semester as a beginning student. Students reentering law school under this paragraph will not be given credit for courses completed prior to exclusion or withdrawal, and grades earned in those courses will not be counted in computing grade averages. Any student readmitted under this paragraph who does not have an overall average of 70 at the end of his second semester following readmission will be excluded automatically; he will not be readmitted. A student will be readmitted under this paragraph only once.

2. Any student whose overall grade average at the end of the first two semesters is less than 65 shall be excluded automatically; he will not be readmitted.

3. Any student whose overall grade average at the end of the first two semesters is less than 68, but not less than 65, shall be excluded automatically; he may be readmitted as a beginning student in a subsequent fall semester. In case of readmission under this paragraph the student will be classified for all purposes as a beginning student and will not be given credit for any courses completed prior to exclusion, and grades earned in those courses will not be counted in computing grade averages. Any student readmitted under this paragraph who does not have an overall average of 70 at the end of his second semester following readmission will be excluded automatically; he will not be readmitted.

Upperclassmen

Any student whose overall grade average at any time falls below 68 shall be excluded automatically; he will not be readmitted.

Probation

First Year Students

Any student whose overall grade average at the end of the first two semesters is less than 70, but not less than 68, shall be placed on probation. If he makes an average of 72 or more in his next semester in school, and his overall grade average continues to be less than 70, he will become an upperclassman on probation. If he fails to make an average of 72 in his next semester in school he will be excluded automatically. Unless his overall grade average at exclusion is below 65 he may be readmitted as a beginning student in a subsequent fall semester. In case of readmission under this paragraph the student will be classified for all purposes as a beginning student and will not be given credit for any courses completed prior to exclusion, and grades earned in those courses will not be counted in computing grade averages. Any student readmitted under this paragraph who does not have an overall average of 70 at the end of his second semester following readmission will be excluded automatically; he will not be readmitted.

_Upperclassmen_

1. Any student whose overall grade average at any time is less than 70, but not less than 68, shall be on probation. Any probationary student whose current grade average in any semester is less than 70 will be excluded automatically. He will not be readmitted to the Law School.

2. A Day Division student on probation shall not register for more than 12 semester-hours in a fall or spring semester; an Evening Division student on probation shall not register for more than 7 semester-hours in a fall or spring semester.

_DISCIPLINE_

Students in the School of Law are subject to the general disciplinary regulations of the University, as well as the special regulations of the Faculty of the School of Law. The Faculty reserves the right to terminate the attendance of any student at any time, or to remove from the list of candidates for the degree the name of any student whom it may deem unworthy on account of neglect of study, incapacity for the law, or deficiency in conduct or character not in keeping with the standards of Southern Methodist University and of the legal profession. Any person who registers in the School agrees to this reserved right.

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

All candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Laws must satisfy the following requirements:

1. Residence of 100 weeks in the Day Division or 134 weeks in the Evening Division. This can be acquired in the Day Division in not less than six semesters and one summer session, and in the Evening Division in not less than eight semesters and two summer sessions. (As to what constitutes residence, see page 48 supra.)
Requirements for Graduation

2. The last two semesters of Day Division residence must be acquired in this school. The last three semesters of Evening Division residence must be acquired in this school.

3. Eighty-four semester-hours’ credit with an overall grade average of not less than 70. (For the method of computing averages, see page 47 supra.)

4. All required courses must have been taken.

5. A candidate may offer toward the fulfillment of the stated requirements for the degree only those courses which were completed by him in this or another approved law school within the eight calendar years next preceding the intended date of graduation. In computing the eight-year period there shall not be included therein any period or periods between September 1, 1940, and June 30, 1947, in which the candidate was on active duty with any of the armed services of the United States, or any period in which the candidate was licensed and engaged in the active practice of law in this or another state.

6. The student’s use of English must be satisfactory.

7. Except for the limitation under rules regarding readmission of former students a student must meet the hour and residence requirements for graduation in effect at the time he enters law school. The student will not be affected by subsequent changes in graduation requirements.

The Faculty reserves the right to change the schedule of courses required for graduation. However, when a required course is inserted in the curriculum at a point already passed by the student he will not be required to go back and take that course.

HONORS

Candidates for the LL.B. degree having the highest average grade, not to exceed ten per cent of the graduating class, may, by vote of the faculty, be awarded the degree, cum laude, magna cum laude or summa cum laude. No one shall be eligible for honors who shall have taken elsewhere more than one-third of the work offered for the degree. The average grade shall be based on work done in this school only; but to receive the degree with honors a transfer from another college must have at least a B average in law courses in the school previously attended.
ADMISSION TO THE BAR

Admission to the Bar in Texas is controlled by rules of the Supreme Court and examinations given by the State Board of Law Examiners in Austin.

To be eligible for these examinations, the student must be a citizen of Texas and of the United States, must have resided in the State of Texas for not less than twelve months prior to the date of the examination, must have had two years (60 semester-hours) of college work at the time he began the study of law and must have pursued his law studies for a period of not less than 27 months in a full-time law school, or 36 months in a part-time law school. Three examinations are given each year, beginning on the first Mondays in February, July and October. For the course of study prescribed and the rules governing the examinations, address Secretary, State Board of Law Examiners, Austin, Texas.

The curriculum of the School of Law substantially covers all the subjects on which the bar examinations are based.

The rules of the Supreme Court require that every person intending to study law in Texas shall, within 30 days after beginning such study, file with the Board of Law Examiners in Austin, a "declaration of intention to study law" showing his educational attainments and the completion of a preliminary character examination. While graduates of the School of Law, Southern Methodist University and all other schools approved by the American Bar Association are exempt from the requirement it is suggested that entering students comply with the requirement. The necessary forms are sent to successful applicants for admission at the time of their acceptance to the School of Law.

STANDARDS OF THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION

The Council on Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar of the American Bar Association requests that attention be called to the Standards of the American Bar Association adopted in 1921 and recommended for enactment by all states. These Standards provide in effect that every candidate for admission to the Bar, in addition to taking a public examination, shall give evidence of graduation from a law school which shall require at least three years of study in a college as a condition of admission, and three years of law study (or longer if not a full-time course), which shall have an adequate library and a sufficient number of teachers giving their entire time to the school to ensure actual personal acquaintance and influence with the whole student body, and which shall not be operated as a commercial enterprise.
