CONFERRING OF HONORARY DEGREES

At the final ceremony of its fiftieth anniversary year, the University, through its Faculty and Trustees, especially honors fourteen men who are graduates of the University and have achieved outstanding positions in their several fields of competence.

GEORGE CLIFTON EDWARDS, JR., Doctor of Laws

Native son of Dallas, graduate of Southern Methodist University, Harvard University and Detroit College of Law; distinguished lawyer, former Justice of the Supreme Court of Michigan, and presently Judge, United States Court of Appeals, Sixth Circuit; member of the Michigan Youth Commission and National Council on Crime and Delinquency, he has been cited repeatedly for his community work and for his outstanding service to youth.

Presented by Dean John M. Claunch

GERALD BOONE HUFF, Doctor of Science

Native son of Texas, distinguished graduate of and former teacher at Southern Methodist University; long-time professor of mathematics and present Graduate School dean of the University of Georgia; significant contributor to the development of geometry through research and publication; he is recognized as an outstanding educational leader in the South as well as in the nation as a whole.

Presented by Provost-Emeritus Hemphill Hosford

KERRY KING, Doctor of Laws

Distinguished native son of Dallas and graduate of Southern Methodist University; outstanding corporation executive in the petroleum industry and innovator in the field of communication; concerned educator with a distinguished relationship as a trustee to the Horace Mann School in New York, public relations advisor to the United States Military Academy, and former lecturer at Columbia University; he is a remarkable example of the culture-conscious business leader.

Presented by Vice President James Henry Stewart

GLEN SNEED McDANIEL, Doctor of Laws

Nurtured in a loving home, endowed with wisdom and creativity, educated in the humane arts at SMU where he earned B.A. and M.A. degrees, matured in the tradition and logic of the law, devoted to country and to principle which has no boundary, he has enhanced the dignity and enlarged the dimension of man's enterprise through his mastery of corporate jurisprudence.

Presented by Vice President Roy Richard Rubottom, Jr.

FREDERICK A. MOTE, Doctor of Science

Distinguished son of Southern Methodist University in the fields of science and education; contributor to and editor of scientific journals; member and officer of scientific societies; professional worker on behalf of national defense; he has made important contributions to the growth of psychology as a science and profession.

Presented by Professor Alvin John North

JAMES CARLISLE MOUZON, Doctor of Science

Native Texan, versatile graduate of Southern Methodist University and California Institute of Technology; inventor; professor of physics, Duke University, Associate Dean of Engineering, University of Michigan; Physicist, Naval Ordnance Laboratory; Director, engineering research, Brown Instrument Company; Chief, Atomic Warfare Division, Air Force; director of the University of Michigan program of engineering education in Brazil; he has contributed notably to the advancement of academic, industrial, and military knowledge.

Presented by Professor Edwin DuBose Mouzon, Jr.

JAMES LATANE NOEL, JR., Doctor of Laws

Lawyer, engineer, son of the Texas soil, supporter of community and church; formerly practitioner in law and now federal judge; he works with dedication and wisdom in the course of justice, ready to innovate when necessary for judicial efficiency, careful in wielding awesome power, willing to act when action is required, mindful always of the delicate balance between state and federal authority.

Presented by Dean Charles O. Galvin

MARK SHEPHERD, JR., Doctor of Engineering

Distinguished alumnus of the School of Engineering, Southern Methodist University; noted leader in the electronics industry, now Executive Vice-President of Texas Instruments, Inc.; loyal supporter of Southern Methodist University, continuing to serve his alma mater as Chairman of the Board of Directors of the SMU Foundation for Science and Engineering; he represents in a remarkable degree the love of both scientific and academic truth.

Presented by Professor Sophus Thompson

CLAUDE MITCHELL SIMPSON, JR., Doctor of Letters

Distinguished alumnus; lover of music and of literature, and eminent as scholar in both arts; as teacher, editor, and writer he has enriched the English departments of major universities and the broader world of learning, reflecting thereby an ever-increasing honor upon his alma mater.

Presented by Dean John Hicks

HENRY NASH SMITH, Doctor of Letters

Graduate of Southern Methodist University, and for many years an outstanding member of our faculty, his writings on the life and works of Mark Twain and upon the cultural evolution of the American West merit in full the distinction he owns as historian and man of letters.

Presented by Dean Claude C. Albritton, Jr.

CHARLES CAMERON SPRAGUE, Doctor of Science

Graduate of Southern Methodist University and the University of Texas School of Medicine; pioneer in the study of diseases of the blood; consultant to hospitals in the United States and Latin America; Dean of the Tulane University School of Medicine; he is an outstanding leader in medical research and education.

Presented by Dean Joseph P. Harris

ANDREW WILSON TARKINGTON, Doctor of Laws

Creative force in a large and dynamic corporation, serving industry through trade associations and professional groups as well as his community in various charitable and philanthropic endeavors, he is an outstanding practitioner of the art of welding human efforts to the achievement of the common good.

Presented by Dean Aaron Q. Sartain

AUBREY GREY WALTON, Doctor of Laws

Dedicated churchman whose sterling leadership has combined the wisdom gained in a business career with mature insights concerning the nature of religious institutions; courageous prophet and understanding counselor who has displayed both beneficence and justice in dealing with intransigent ignorance and entrenched prejudice; he is an ardent defender and supporter of the Church's commitment to quality education.

Presented by Professor Douglas Ewing Jackson

LANCE WEBB, Doctor of Laws

Holder of both the M.A. and B.D. degrees from Southern Methodist University, pastor, preacher, author, and bishop; president of the General Conference Commission on Worship; he works with steady and effective good will for both the deepening of the life of the Methodist Church and the broadening of her relationships.

Presented by Dean Joseph D. Quillian, Jr.
