CONFERRING OF HONORARY DEGREES

GORDON STANLEY BROWN, Doctor of Engineering

Leader among engineering educators; born in New South Wales, Australia; graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, where he has remained since; recognized authority in electrical engineering and prolific contributor to the science of automatic control; his concepts for the education of engineers have had a profound influence on engineering education throughout the world and have enhanced the international preeminence of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology which he serves as Dean.

Presented by Dean Thomas Lyle Martin, Jr.

CECIL HOWARD GREEN, Doctor of Science

Distinguished engineer, scientist, and industrialist; born in England, educated at the University of British Columbia and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology; pioneer in the art of geophysical prospecting; leader in the development of cooperation among the universities of this region; he has been a generous patron of and an untiring adviser to educational institutions regardless of geographical location from the preparatory to the graduate level.

Presented by Dean Claude Carrol Albritton, Jr.

SARAH TILGHMAN HUGHES, Doctor of Laws

Lawyer, teacher, gentlewoman; a trustee of Bishop College at home and of Goucher College in the East; counselor to women in the greater service which they can give to their community; she has served with devotion as practitioner in law, state representative, state district judge. Now United States District Judge, she works with patience, courage, wisdom, and dedication in the course of justice; in civil matters seeking always the proper result in the particular case with due regard for precedent; in criminal matters, ever mindful of the need for rehabilitation, wherever possible.

Presented by Dean Charles O'Neill Galvin

SIR HAROLD JEFFREYS, Doctor of Science

British astronomer and geophysicist of world renown; master teacher; retired professor of Cambridge University; resident this semester in Dallas and contributing to scientific education in the Southwest; his research and writings have extended from studies of wind dynamics to scholarly speculation on the nature of the interior of the planet Earth and the origin of the Solar System.

Presented by Professor James Elwood Brooks

MARY MOODY NORTHEN, Doctor of Humane Letters

One of a small number of outstanding women executives in American business; prominent in the fields of banking, insurance, and hotel management; third generation representative of a distinguished and responsible Texas commercial family; patron of philanthropic organizations as diverse as the Boy Scouts and American universities; supporter of the advanced education of mature women and of medical research; active participant in community, state, and national affairs; she has quietly and without ostentation demonstrated the vision and the power of accomplishment of an able and dedicated Christian woman.

Presented by Dean Joseph Dillard Quillian, Jr.
