CONFERRING OF HONORARY DEGREES

NOAH WATSON MOORE, JR., Doctor of Divinity

Methodist pastor, district superintendent and bishop successively, he is an admirable exemplar of the maxim that he gives most who gives himself in all his undertakings. As a trustee of seven educational institutions and president of two boards of trustees, as member of the Methodist Commission for Overseas Relief, the board of directors of the Urban League, the YMCA and the National Council of Churches, he has been a steadfast stalwart in the cause of human justice, civil rights and social harmony during the long and difficult years—demonstrating repeatedly the relevance of sound learning and high religion in the struggle for a truly human and humane society. In grateful recognition of his far-visioned leadership and service, we are proud to claim him as an alumnus of this university, with the degree of Doctor of Divinity, honoris causa.

Presented by Dean Joseph Dillard Quillian, Jr.

LEVI ARTHUR OLAN, Doctor of Humane Letters

Distinguished religious leader, educator, humanitarian, he has extended the honored role of rabbi (Teacher) beyond the bounds of his congregation to include the whole Southwest region. As an eloquent preacher and lecturer, he has communicated the best of the Jewish heritage to a wide audience with great integrity and compassion. As a university regent and dedicated public servant, he has upheld the human cause in many crises and has won for himself our admiration and true affection. It is this rare combination of talent and devotion that we delight to recognize this day with the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

Presented by Professor Decherd Henry Turner, Jr.

Redesignation of Bachelor of Laws Degrees as Juris Doctor

On November 10, 1967, the Board of Trustees of Southern Methodist University approved the award of the Juris Doctor degree instead of the Bachelor of Laws degree for the School of Law. In addition, prior graduates of the School of Law, who at the time of receipt of their Bachelor of Laws degrees held an undergraduate bachelor's degree, were offered the option of exchanging their Bachelor of Laws diplomas for diplomas evidencing award of the Juris Doctor degree. The Appendix is a list of those whose degrees are redesignated.
