

SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY

Fifty-Eighth Annual
CONVOCATION

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES
and
CONFERRING OF DEGREES

SUNDAY AFTERNOON, THE TWENTIETH OF MAY
NINETEEN HUNDRED AND SEVENTY-THREE AT TWO-FIFTEEN O'CLOCK

MOODY COLISEUM

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

TO THE 1973 COLLEGE GRADUATES:

I am inclined to be sparing with words of congratulations, advice, and challenge to this year's college graduates, for you hear more than enough of them at commencement time, and you are eager to turn from words to action.

From early childhood, for the most part, the classroom has been your world. Now the world becomes your classroom. The education you have gained so far is precious capital. As you invest it in the service of mankind, it will continue to grow and pay you rich dividends.

Your opportunities for service and achievement are wide. For the first time in your lifetime, the world is on the threshold of an era of lasting peace. The United States is astir with the forces of a profound renewal -- social, economic, political -- and reaching for new possibilities in its third century of independence.

The coming age will belong to you. America is grateful for what you are, and much in need of what you can become. I wish you Godspeed on the great adventure that lies ahead.

CONFERRING OF HONORARY DEGREES

O'NEIL FORD, Doctor of Humane Letters

A native of Texas, he has become one of the most distinguished and productive architects at work in America today. A most versatile and creative designer, his accomplishments range through all fields of architecture—domestic, religious, institutional and industrial. As architect and visiting professor he has been vitally interested in the form and content of many educational institutions throughout the country. Because he believes that every human shelter should be distinctive, and because he brings to each new project the best of his talent without compromise we are pleased to confer upon him the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

Presented by Professor Emeritus Jerry Bywaters

RIGHT HONORABLE BARONESS LEE OF ASHERIDGE, Doctor of Humane Letters

Member of the Mother of Parliaments, Life Peeress, stateswoman, author, champion of education in the liberal arts, she guided the creative planning for Great Britain's Open University. Born and reared in Scotland, she has inspired men and women at home and abroad with the same sense of dignity which has marked her own lifetime of pioneering efforts in an era of social change. Tenacious in the pursuit of her far-reaching vision of a more humane society, she has tempered the deliberations of ministers of state with the grace and humor born of her deep intuitive sympathy for her fellow man. Her sensitive and determined leadership in planning the Open University has enabled it to become an international model for making the traditional values of liberal higher education accessible to greater numbers of people. For her far-visioned and courageous leadership in serving others, we this day accord her grateful recognition by conferring upon her the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

Presented by Professor Fred Wylie Bryson

RAYMOND DONALD NASHER, Doctor of Humane Letters

Distinguished urban planner and developer and public servant, he has given generously and effectively of himself to improve the quality of life for people and understanding among peoples of the world. As an innovative business leader, he has demonstrated the desirability both from a private and public viewpoint of taking into account the total effect on the environment of the use of land. He has continued to strive for improvements in the way land is used by people to provide and maintain an attractive environment. As a public servant, he has given creative leadership to many national and international organizations, conspicuous among these being service as the United States delegate to the General Assembly of the United Nations, as Executive Director of the White House Conference on International Cooperation, and as the Chairman of the National Commission on Urban Development. In recognition of his farsighted business leadership and his significant public services Southern Methodist University is proud to confer upon him the degree of Doctor of Humane Letters, honoris causa.

Presented by Professor Sydney Chandler Reagan

J. CLEO THOMPSON, Doctor of Laws

Distinguished lawyer, educational statesman, civic leader, he has served the cause of humanity through his dedicated service to the legal profession. As a former president of the Dallas Bar Association, Chairman of the Board of Directors of the State Bar of Texas, and member of the House of Delegates of the American Bar Association, he has provided leadership for the organized bar. He has been a source of strength for legal education with a long history of support therefor, particularly of the Law School of Southern Methodist University. As chairman of the Hatton W. Sumners Foundation, he has been instrumental in the establishment and continuation of the Hatton W. Sumners Scholarships for outstanding law students. For his contributions to the legal profession and for his unswerving support of legal education, we this day accord him grateful recognition by conferring upon him the degree of Doctor of Laws, honoris causa.

Presented by Professor Charles O'Neill Galvin
