DEDMAN SCHOOL OF LAW

THIRTY-SIXTH ANNUAL
HOODING OF CANDIDATES
FOR THE DEGREE OF JURIS DOCTOR
AND ADVANCED DEGREES

SATURDAY EVENING, THE NINETEENTH OF MAY
TWO THOUSAND AND SEVEN
AT SIX-THIRTY O’CLOCK
LAW SCHOOL QUADRANGLE
Southern Methodist University opened in the fall of 1915 and graduated its first class in the spring of 1916. This year marks the University's 92nd Annual Commencement Convocation.

The School of Law at SMU was established in February 1925. It is a member of the Association of American Law Schools and is approved by the Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar of the American Bar Association.

The first law school class graduated in 1928 with 11 members. This, the 80th graduating class, consists of 201 candidates for the Juris Doctor degree, six candidates for the combined degree of Juris Doctor and Master of Business Administration, 25 candidates for the Master of Laws degree (Comparative and International Law), 14 candidates for the Master of Laws degree (Taxation), two candidates for the Master of Laws degree, and one candidate for the degree of Doctor of the Science of Law.

On February 14, 2001, the Dedman family gave the School of Law a gift of $20 million to name the school the "Dedman School of Law, Southern Methodist University." This magnificent gift is used primarily for student scholarships and faculty development.

There are four buildings in the Law School Quadrangle. Storey Hall houses the faculty library, faculty and administrative offices, the Legal Clinics, School of Law publications and registrar. Carr Collins Hall contains the Godwin Gruber Dining Hall, seminar classrooms, a student lounge, and the offices of Admissions, Career Services and the Public Service Program. Florence Hall is the main classroom building. Underwood Law Library contains more than 620,000 volumes and is the largest private law library in the Southwest. The Hillcrest Foundation Courtroom in the library functions as a grand appellate courtroom and classroom that provides our students with state-of-the-art technology. Faculty members can incorporate a variety of media into their courses, tape lectures, and student presentations, and bring the resources of the Internet directly into the classroom.

The Law School is uniquely advantaged by its location in the Dallas Metroplex; it draws its more than 800 students from most of the 50 states and more than 100 colleges and universities. The school maintains a close working relationship with the Dallas Bar Association, whose members teach seminars in specialized areas. Students have the opportunity to select courses and seminars of small enrollment that foster intimate interaction with the faculty.

The Law School curriculum is steeped in the basics of a rigorous legal education. Beginning in the first year, J.D. (both full-time and part-time) students are exposed to a broad spectrum of courses designed to teach the fundamental skills of legal analysis and client representation. The depth and quality of the curriculum in such areas as corporate law, commercial and tax law, constitutional law, litigation and alternative dispute resolution, and international law provide students with the knowledge and training required to practice law in any part of the country.

The Law School also offers the Master of Laws (LL.M.) degree and the Doctor of the Science of Law (S.J.D.) degree to a select group of highly qualified international and domestic lawyers. The LL.M. in Taxation degree program is open to students holding a J.D. degree from a U.S. law school. Students with a law degree from a foreign university may enroll in the LL.M. degree program in Comparative and International Law.
