

WELCOME TO SOUTHERN METHODIST UNIVERSITY
DEDMAN SCHOOL OF LAW

Southern Methodist University was founded in 1911 and opened in 1915. SMU School of Law was established in February 1925. It is a member of the Association of American Law Schools and is approved by the Section of Legal Education and Admissions to the Bar of the American Bar Association.

The first Law School class graduated in 1928 with 11 members. This, the 92nd graduating class, consists of 240 candidates for the Juris Doctor degree, 10 candidates for the combined degree of Juris Doctor and Master of Business Administration, 1 candidate for the combined degree of Juris Doctor and Master of Arts in Economics, 31 candidates for the Master of Laws degree (Comparative and International), 1 candidate for the Master of Laws degree (General), and 3 candidates for the Master of Laws degree (Taxation).

Highlighting the celebration of its 75th year, SMU School of Law was named Dedman School of Law in 2001 in honor of Dallas benefactors Nancy and Robert H. Dedman, Sr., and their family.

With more than 15,000 graduates, SMU Dedman School of Law has a national and international reputation of training prominent lawyers in both law and business. SMU Dedman Law provides unparalleled connections to the thriving legal and business community in the Dallas Metroplex. The school draws students from more than 90 colleges and universities.

The Law School curriculum is steeped in the basics of a rigorous legal education and enriched through extensive experiential learning opportunities. Beginning in the first year, J.D. students are exposed to a broad spectrum of courses designed to teach the fundamental skills of legal analysis and client representation. Students have direct, personal access to an award-winning faculty. Also, the Law School maintains a close working relationship with the Dallas legal community, whose members teach seminar classes in specialized areas. The depth and quality of the curriculum in such areas as business and corporate law, international law, intellectual property, and family law and advocacy provide students with the knowledge and training required to practice law in any part of the country.

SMU Dedman School of Law also offers the Master of Laws (LL.M.) degree and the Doctor of the Science of Law (S.J.D.) degree to a select group of highly qualified international and domestic lawyers. Dating back to 1949, SMU was one of the first law schools in the United States to establish a program in international and comparative law. To date, more than 2,000 lawyers from 100 countries have earned an LL.M. or S.J.D. degree from SMU.

The Law School Quadrangle consists of four buildings surrounding a beautiful courtyard. Storey Hall houses the faculty and administrative offices, the Legal Clinics, the office of Student Affairs, and the Registrar. Carr Collins Hall contains the Godwin Gruber Lawyers Inn, seminar classrooms, a student lounge, and the offices of Admissions, Career Services, the Academic Success and Public Service Program, and the Graduate and International Programs. Florence Hall is the main classroom building. Underwood Law Library boasts more than 660,000 volumes and is the largest private law library in the Southwest. The Hillcrest Foundation Courtroom in Underwood functions as a grand appellate courtroom and classroom. The Walsh classroom in Underwood also functions as a courtroom and serves as a venue for engaging interviews and lectures open to law students and the general public.

PRO BONO HONOR ROLL

Since 1996, SMU Dedman School of Law students have been required to complete a minimum of 30 hours of law-related public service to be eligible to graduate. These hours must be uncompensated and not for academic credit. From the program's inception, our students have displayed their passion for public service, and each year they substantially exceed the minimum requirement. We are delighted to report that our class of 2019, which includes our graduates from August 2018, December 2018, and May 2019, performed a total of 25,226 hours of public service, for an average of over 93 hours per student. As a result, over the last 23 years, SMU Dedman law students have volunteered more than 301,376 hours in law-related efforts to assist the underserved in our community. We congratulate the following graduates who volunteered 200 or more hours providing free legal assistance in the community:
