Introduction

On October 23-24, 1998, The John Tower Center for Political Studies and the School of Law at Southern Methodist University in conjunction with Universidad de Buenos Aires and Universidad Nacional Autónoma de Mexico hosted a symposium entitled "Beyond the Summit of the Americas II: Prospects for FTAA and Future Western Hemisphere Integration." This conference considered legal issues that will likely shape the implementation of the FTAA and the role these issues will play in other modes of future western hemispheric integration. This issue contains articles from many of the symposium presenters. These works lend insightful analysis from a variety of fields that contribute to the current discussion on the future of the FTAA and the region's integration.
