

THE INTERNATIONAL LAWYER

Fall 1999

Volume 33

Number 3

CONTENTS

Foreign Law Year in Review: 1998

Introduction	John F. Murphy	645
Canadian Law	John F. Clifford Jeffrey P. Roode Stephen Heller Phil Rogers Jeffrey S. Graham Dean Saul Peter Lichtenbaum	647
Central European Law	Rebecca J. Hanson Pavlina Popova Petr Kotab David Falada Raino Paron Maiu Fischer Filip Klavins Eugenija Sutkiene Andrew Kingston Paul Carrier	661
China Law	Xian Chu Zhang	677
European Law	Mark J. Smith Donald Garner David Church Paulette Vander Schueren Charles Price Gerhard Picot Denise Kenny Jeffrey Greenbaum Maurizio Vasciminni Lisa Brownlee Anne-Kirsti Braekke Catherine Herceg Eikland Cecilia Vernerson Edward Hoare Robert Bond Alexander Blumrosen Thomas Legler	695

CONTENTS

Inter-American LawJohn Rooney
Isabel Franco
Rosa Bueno
Jorge A. Neher
Luis Rengifo Röh 715

Mexico: Congress Approves Bank Savings
Protection LawJohn E. Rogers
Francisco Videgaray O. 731

Mexico: Current Developments in Power (Electricity)Jorge G. Santistevan 737

Mexico: The Regulations to the Foreign Investment Law and the Foreign Investments National RegistryJuan Francisco Torres-Landa 747

Middle East Commercial Law Developments Howard L. Stovall
Harold Ullman 753

Vietnam's Legal Framework for Foreign Investment Pham Van Thuyet 765

Articles

An Ethical Dilemma: Fee Splitting with Foreign Lawyers Roger W. Reinsch 801

Quo Vadis Domine: Reflections on Individual and Ethnic Self-Determination under an Emerging International Legal RegimeFrancis A. Gabor 809

Transnational Legal PracticeDonald H. Rivkin 825

The U.N. Convention on Independent Guarantees and Stand-by Letters of CreditDr. Filip De Ly 831