In addition, appointments to the 1966-1967 Editorial Staff include Ben J. Kerr III and Patrick O. Waddel. All of these appointees will be third-year students at the Southern Methodist University School of Law during the next year.

Other recent appointments include former Board Members Larry B. Bach and James E. Barnett to Associate Editor.

The outgoing editors will enter upon various pursuits. The Editor-in-Chief, Mr. Thompson, will join the SMU Law Faculty as an assistant professor; two editors are joining federal agency legal staffs, Mr. Lloyd (CAB) and Mr. Peterson (SEC). Mr. Favrot will work towards a master's degree in comparative law at SMU. Mr. Moore and Mr. Bach are entering private practice in Dallas, while Mr. McFall and Mr. Barnett will fulfill military obligations.

As a final official act, we express our appreciation to the members of the Journal's Editorial Advisory Board, whose advice and contributions have been so important to the Journal's progress; to our Senior Editor, Professor Howard J. Taubenfeld, for his guidance; and to the Administration and Faculty of the Southern Methodist University School of Law, for their confidence and their assistance.
