The Journal prints matter it considers worthy. However, publication does not necessarily imply agreement by the editors or the publisher with the opinions expressed in the articles.

The masthead of this issue indicates certain changes in the composition of the Editorial Advisory Board of the Journal. It is with genuine regret that we announce the resignation of Professor Oliver J. Lissitzyn. His assistance to the Board of Editors in the past has been invaluable, and we express our sincere thanks to him.

We are pleased to announce the appointment of two new members to the Board. Even prior to their appointment to the Board, Mr. Harold Caplan and Mr. John Stephen gave much valuable time and advice to the Journal. We are most appreciative of their past assistance and consent to serve in this new capacity and are certain that their participation will greatly enhance the quality of this journal. We welcome them aboard most enthusiastically.

During this past year certain behind-the-scene changes have also occurred. In a continuing effort of improvement, the members of the Editorial Advisory Board graciously consented to give of their time to review manuscripts submitted for publication. Such prepublication scrutiny will enable the Board of Editors to present the best of the material in the field to the readers.

As the last official act of the 1967-1968 Board of Editors, we extend our thanks to the Editorial Advisory Board, the Faculty and Administration of the School of Law of Southern Methodist University and the innumerable persons who have so generously assisted us. Special thanks go to Mr. C. O. Miller of the University of Southern California for his assistance in the planning of the Symposium on Air Safety.
