JOURNAL OF AIR LAW AND COMMERCE

SPECIAL OFFERING

of

Pre-War Volumes of the Journal

Open to Current Subscribers

19 Volumes for $85.00 (unbound)

The legal history of civil aviation is nowhere better portrayed than in the pre-war volumes of the Journal. Under the name of JOURNAL OF AIR LAW, publication commenced in 1930 and continued quarterly through the dynamic period of changes in federal regulatory policies, culminating in the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938 and Reorganization Plans III and IV in 1940. Publication was suspended during the war and was resumed in 1947 with Volume 14.

Complete sets of these valuable historical issues are offered to current subscribers for $85.00 a set unbound—a saving of about $20.00 from established price.

The Journal will gladly arrange for binding of sets purchased at this time for $3.00 per volume—about six to eight weeks required.
