The U.N.-certified English text is published in 52 Federal Register 6262, 6264-6280 (March 2, 1987).

3. Translations of the Official Text.

(a) German Text. German-speaking countries have agreed upon a German translation of the Convention text, which, with minor exceptions, is uniform. This translation may be found most easily in C.M. Bianca & M.J. Bonell eds., Commentary on the International Sales Law: The 1980 Vienna Sales Convention Appendix (Milan: A. Giuffrè Editore, 1987).

2. The official records may be purchased (Sales No. E.82.V.5) from United Nations Publications, Room GA-32, United Nations, New York, NY 10017. (The published volume of the official records states that the sales number is E.81.IV.3; this number is incorrect as it has been superseded by the number cited in the text.) The Convention text in the six official United Nations languages is also available from Treaty Section, Office of Legal Affairs, United Nations, New York, NY 10017.
BACKGROUND DOCUMENTS

1. 1980 Convention. The records of the 1980 Vienna conference are published officially in United Nations Conference on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods—Official Records (1981). These official records include the documents of the conference and summary records of the plenary meetings and of the meetings of the main committees. The principal conference documents are the 1978 draft UNCITRAL text, a commentary on this draft text prepared by the UNCITRAL Secretariat, and the Secretary-General’s analysis of comments and proposals on the 1978 draft made by governments and international organizations.
