

Editorial Comment: Dedication of Volume 15

On January 16, 1980, Colonel Eberhardt Paul Deutsch died. He was a lawyer of international reputation and a good friend to the ABA, to our Section, and, as Victor Folsom recently noted, to many of us. Mr. Deutsch edited The International Lawyer for six years. This volume is dedicated to his memory.

We are sad at Mr. Deutsch's death, but we are proud that he touched The International Lawyer and helped form it. That is a very special legacy in which you and I share.
