Bibliography on Arbitration and Litigation in East Asian–United States Transactions†

I. Arbitration

A. General Materials

———. Lawyers Arbitration Letter and Digest of Court Decisions (quarterly).

*Messrs. Goldman and Routh practice in New York City and Seattle respectively.
†Materials on specific East Asian countries are listed in Part III of this bibliography.

— Rules for Technical Expertise (Publication 307).

Binder II—a compilation of rules covering commodities and shipping, a collection of national enactments, and a bibliography.

Unnumbered Binder—"The New York Convention," Gaja, Giorgio (ed.).

Szladits (ed.). A Bibliography on Foreign and Comparative Law: Books and Articles in English (Oceana; supplemented through 1976).

B. Regional Arbitration

Asian-African Legal Consultative Committee (27 Ring Road, Lajpat Nagar-

C. Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Arbitral Awards

1. Statute

2. Convention

3. Articles

II. Litigation

A. General Materials

American Bar Association, Section of International Law and Section of Litigation. Outlines and Reference Materials Distributed at Workshop on Problems in Transnational Litigation (April 16, 1980).

B. Service of Judicial and Extrajudicial Documents

1. United States Statutes, Rules & Regulations

28 U.S.C. § 1696 (service by U.S. court of documents in a proceeding before a foreign or international tribunal).

2. Conventions

3. Articles

4. Other

C. Taking of Evidence

1. United States Statutes, Regulations and Rules

28 U.S.C. § 1781 (transmittal of letter rogatory or request between United States tribunal and foreign or international tribunal, officer or agency).
28 U.S.C. § 1782 (assistance by United States district courts to foreign and international tribunals and to litigants therein).
28 U.S.C. § 1783 (subpoena of United States national or resident in foreign country).
156 INTERNATIONAL LAWYER

28 U.S.C. § 1874 (contempt order by United States court for failure of person to respond to subpoena served in foreign country).
22 C.F.R. §§ 92.49-92.71 (depositions by United States Foreign Service and Consular Officer).
Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 28(b) (persons before whom depositions may be taken in foreign countries).

2. CONVENTIONS

3. ARTICLES

4. Other

D. Recognition and Enforcement of Foreign Judgments

III. Transnational Arbitration and Litigation:
Specific East Asian Countries

A. People's Republic of China

Luk, Simon; Sawyier, Stephen K.; & Silkenat, James R. "Legal Institutions

B. Indonesia

C. Hong Kong

Dicks, Anthony R. "Litigation and Arbitration in Hong Kong," outline presented at annual meeting program of ABA Section of International Law and Section of Litigation, Honolulu (Aug. 1980).

D. Japan

——. The Quarterly of the Japan Commercial Arbitration Association (periodical).

E. Korea

F. Philippines

