TEN PROMISES OF A GOOD CITIZEN

1. I will vote at all elections. I will inform myself on candidates and issues and will use my greatest influence to see that honest and capable officials are elected. I will accept public office when I can serve my community or my country thereby. (Note—In recent elections half of the eligible voters did not bother to vote for anyone!)
2. I will serve on a jury when asked.
3. I will respect and obey the laws. I will assist public officials in preventing crime and the courts in giving evidence.
4. I will pay my taxes understandingly (if not cheerfully) but will oppose unnecessary federal, state or local expenditures.
5. I will work for peace but will dutifully accept my responsibilities in time of war and will respect the flag of the United States of America.
6. In thought, expression and action; at home, at school and in all my contacts, I will avoid any group prejudice based on class, race or religion.
7. I will support our system of free public education by doing everything I can to improve the schools in my own community.
8. I will try to make my community a better place in which to live.
9. I will practice and teach the principles of good citizenship in my own home and in my other relationships.
10. I will oppose those who seek gradually to destroy economic liberty and convert our nation into a fascistic or socialistic state.
