

THE INTERNATIONAL LAWYER

Volume 8

July 1974

Number 3

CONTENTS

Articles

- Mediterranean Discord: Conflicting Greek-Turkish
Claims on the Aegean Seabed Alexis Phylactopoulos 431
- The Proposed Legislation on the Jurisdictional
Immunities of Foreign States Michael H. Cardozo 442
- The Common Market Judgments Convention—Its Threat
and Challenge to Americans Beverly May Carl 446
- Restriction of Aliens in Business in Ghana and Kenya W. Paatii Oforu-Amaah 452
- Water Pollution Control Law in Sweden Thomas Brooks Jones 478
- Impartial Expert Testimony Under The Federal Rules
of Evidence: A French Perspective William J. Travis 492
- Opinion:
United States v. William L. Calley, Jr. Robert Emmett Quinn
William Horace Darden 523
- Tokyo Conference on International Economy and Competition Policy Sigmund Timberg 540
- Some Developments and Differences in the Operation of Competition Laws D. M. Jacobs 544
- U.S. Foreign Contractors' Standing to Sue in United States Courts Onkar N. Sharma 574
- Law in Africa: Sixth World Conference on World Peace Convened Leonard M. Salter 594

Nigeria After “Indigenization”: Is There Any Room for the American Businessman?	Jerome F. Donovan	600
The Hague Convention on the Law Applicable to Products Liability	Willis L.M. Reese	606
Antitrust and the Multinational Corporation: Competition or Cartels?	Mayo J. Thompson	618
Panama and the Multinational Corporation: Tax-Haven and Other Considerations	Robert Y. Stebbings	626
Departmental Comments
Congressional Affairs	Harry LeRoy Jones	637
Case Comments
Decisions of International and Foreign Tribunals	Malcolm W. Monroe	650
Bibliography		654
Announcement		669