Another event of the Journal Banquet was the presentation of the first Editorial Board Award. The award will be presented annually to the member of the Student Editorial Board who, in the opinion of the officers, has made the greatest contribution to the Journal in the past year. The award for 1956-57 was presented to Walter W. Steele, Jr., whose Comment, "Misappropriation Without Violence in Texas," appeared in Volume 10, Number 4 (Fall, 1956).
