INTER ALIA

The Journal is pleased to present in this issue an article, "Federal Taxes and Community Property," by John Paul Jackson. Mr. Jackson, a Dallas attorney, is a nationally recognized authority on taxation. We feel that this article will be indispensable to Texas attorneys, concerned as they are with an increasing number of tax problems. A limited number of reprints are available at a price of seventy-five cents each.

Southern Methodist University School of Law and the Southwestern Legal Foundation have announced that the Eighth Annual Lawyers Week will be held April 14-19 at the Southwestern Legal Center. The tentative schedule includes a conference on Juvenile Delinquency, Conference on Atomic Energy, and Conference on Law in Society; the theme of the latter will be "Fundamental Law in Criminal Prosecution." Small businesses will be the focal point of the Institute on Anti-Trust Laws. Inquiries should be directed to Mr. Gordon Carpenter, Southwestern Legal Foundation, Dallas 5, Texas.
