INTER ALIA

It was recently announced that the annual "Lawyers' Week" at the School of Law will be held this year from April 27 - May 1, 1959. Several institutes will be conducted during the week, including: Institute on Laws and Regulations Affecting Small Business, April 27-28; Institute on Trial Tactics in Criminal Cases, April 28-29; and the 1959 Conference on Law in Society, April 30.

Lawyers' Week again ends with Law Students' Day, May 1, when awards are presented to outstanding students. Also on this day, the Senior Case Club arguments will be held before the Supreme Court of Texas. Case Club participants for this year were recently announced. They are: Blake Tartt, Marshall J. Doke, Jr., Dennis Trent, Joe A. Stalcup, Jerry Moss, and Allen Butler.

A member of the first graduating class of the SMU School of Law has become the first alumnus to complete a fully-endowed scholarship at the law school. Dean Robert G. Storey announced receipt of the contribution from Mrs. Erin Bain Jones of Dallas, a 1928 graduate. Titled the "Erin Bain Jones Law Scholarship" by school officials, income from the gift will afford full tuition to a deserving law student each year.

A documentary movie featuring the Southwestern Legal Center has been filmed for television and 16mm motion picture showings. Entitled "The Rock and the Stars—Story of the Southwestern Legal Center," the twenty-seven minute film is especially appropriate for presentation to service organizations, pre-law clubs, schools, and professional groups. Copies of the film may be obtained on a free loan basis from the Southwestern Legal Foundation, Dallas, Texas.
