INTER ALIA

The S.M.U. School of Law Moot Court Team—composed of David Musselwhite; Associate Editor, Neil Weatherhogg; and Ronald W. Turley—won the National Moot Court Competition in New York City in December. Earlier, the team won the regional competition, which was held at Southern Methodist University. The team was coached this year by Professor Harvey Davis and Professor William VanDercreek. At the national competition, the S.M.U. team switched sides in each round of the competition and defeated St. Louis University, University of Wisconsin, New York University, and Washington University of St. Louis. The team brief won third place in the national competition, and David Musselwhite was selected as the top speaker in the final round.

The Journal is pleased to announce the following new invitees to the staff from the first year class: Donald Campbell, Ronald L. Clower, Glenn H. Johnson, Robert G. McCain, Carl W. McKinzie, David G. McLane, John L. Primmer, Anthony D. Schlesinger, John Webb, Ronald L. Wilkinson, and Don E. Williams. The Journal instituted a policy of inviting a limited number of top-ranked first year students to join the staff at the end of the first semester. Last year's experiment proved very successful in providing timely case notes for the fall issue and was continued again this year.

The Spring Law Week activities are scheduled for April 26, 1964 through May 2, 1964. This year Mr. Henry Luce, Editor-in-Chief of Time, Inc., will be the guest speaker at 8:30 a.m. on Friday, May 1, 1964. Saturday, May 2, 1964, the legal fraternities will have their annual breakfasts at 8:00 a.m. At 9:30 there will be a reception for the Texas Supreme Court in the Dallas Bar Club. The S.M.U. Law Alumni will meet at 11:00 a.m. in Karcher Auditorium, and at 12:00 there will be a luncheon honoring the Supreme Court. The Spring Awards Reception and Banquet will be held Saturday, May 2, 1964, from 6:00 p.m. until 1:00 a.m. in the Sundown Room of the Marriott Motel. The Senior Case Club Argument has been discontinued this year.

Jim Craig, former Associate Editor of the Journal, will return to the S.M.U. Law School on July 1, 1964, as a member of the administrative staff and faculty. Jim will assume the duties of Assistant to the Dean and will teach one course in legal accounting.
