

1965

Inter Alia

Follow this and additional works at: <https://scholar.smu.edu/smulr>

Recommended Citation

Inter Alia, 19 Sw L.J. 303 (1965)
<https://scholar.smu.edu/smulr/vol19/iss2/5>

This Case Note is brought to you for free and open access by the Law Journals at SMU Scholar. It has been accepted for inclusion in SMU Law Review by an authorized administrator of SMU Scholar. For more information, please visit <http://digitalrepository.smu.edu>.

INTER ALIA

Five members of the second year class have been initiated into the Barristers. The new Barristers are: Jesse Boyd Heath, Carl Wayne McKinzie, John L. Primmer, John David Tobin and Don E. Williams. Officers of the organization for the next school year are: Lord Chief Baron, Robert G. McCain; Lord Baron, George W. Bramblett; Scrivener, David G. McLane; and Sergeant at Arms, Carl Wayne McKinzie.

At the annual Southern Methodist University Law School Awards Banquet, the following prizes and awards were presented: the Barrister Faculty Award (to the faculty member, who, in the opinion of the Barristers, has made the outstanding contribution to the Law School during the year), Alan R. Bromberg; the Vernon Law Book Company Award (a set of Vernon's Annotated Texas Statutes to the student editor making the outstanding contribution to the Journal), John R. Johnson; the Thompson, Knight, Wright & Simmons Award ($100 to the author of the best comment), Reba Graham Razor; the Turner Atwood, Meer & Francis Award ($50 each to the two authors of the best case notes), Don E. Williams and John L. Primmer; the Kilgore and Kilgore Award ($100 to the author of the best oil and gas paper), David G. McLane; the Texas Association of Plaintiff's Attorneys Award ($100 to the author of the best comment in the area of Torts or Workman's Compensation), James T. Lloyd; the Texas Association of Defense Counsel Award ($100 to the author of the best case note in the area of Torts and Workman's Compensation), Terry S. Stanford; The Wynne, Jaffe & Tinsley Moot Court Award ($100 and a plaque to the outstanding students in the Moot Court program), George W. Bramblett, Jr. and Ronald Windle Turley; the Russell M. Baker Award (a plaque to the winners of the first-year Moot Court Competition), Thomas W. Armstrong and David E. Pickett; the Wall Street Journal Award (a year's subscription to the student who most improves his grades in courses employing the Wall Street Journal), John P. Falconer; the Johnson, Bromberg, Leeds and Riggs Award ($100 to the outstanding student in corporate finance courses), Robert C. Gist; the Journal of Air Law and Commerce Award (to the student writing the best case note and to the student editor making the outstanding contribution to the publication), Edward A. Peterson and Ray A. Goodwin; the Southwestern Legal Foundation Scholarship Trophy (to the legal fraternity having the highest grade average), Phi Delta Phi; the Lawyers Title Insurance Corporation Award ($50 for excellence in the field of real property), Robert C. Gist; and the Kappa Beta Pi Award, J. Stephen Dycus.

Persons who were selected for the Order of the Woolsack, the Law School scholastic society for the top ten percent of the graduating class, were James William Cardwell, John Purdy Falconer, Jr. (cum laude); Robert Charles Gist (summa cum laude); John Richard Johnson (summa cum laude); Robert Bruce LaBoon (cum laude); Philip Larmmon, Jr.; Joe Scott Morris; John Murray Stephenson, Jr. (cum laude); Don Edwin Stokes; Wallace Martin Swanson (cum laude); John Rufus Wallingford; and Linda Kay West.