INTER ALIA

This is the final issue of volume nineteen of the Southwestern Law Journal. We welcome your criticism and comment on past issues and look forward to your suggestions for those to be published in the future. The following Leading Articles are planned for the first issue of volume twenty: Greenhill, Assumed Risk; Carrington, The General Arbitration Statute of Texas of 1965; Magnus, Capacity to Stand Trial in Texas; and Hemingway, After Acquired Title in Texas, to be presented in two installments. Presently scheduled for the second issue of volume twenty are: Sargent, The 1964 Amendments to the Federal Securities Acts; Meer, The Federal Private Offering Exemption; and Johnson, Applicability of the Antitrust Laws to Securities Exchange Practices.

We are pleased to announce the selection of the following first year students as Journal Invitees: Jerry Lee Arnold, William Thomas Carlisle, Thomas Neal Combs, Clarice Jane Davis, William R. Jones, Thomas Terrell Lasley, James Albon Mattox, Steven Charles Sach, and Steve Alan Ungerman.

The School of Law has announced that Honorable John Minor Wisdom of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, will present the Second Annual Robert Gerald Storey Lecture on April 18, 1966. Judge Wisdom is a member of the Journal's Advisory Board, and the staff welcomes his selection as Storey Lecturer.

The Southwestern Legal Foundation has announced the following institutes and short-courses to be held during the Spring: Short Course on Uniform Commercial Code, April 25-29; Institute on Wills and Probate, April 28-29; Short Course on Oil and Gas Law and Taxation, May 31-June 10; Short Course on Wills, Probate, Trusts and Estate Planning, June 13-18; Short Course on Labor Law, June 20-25.

Mrs. Reba Graham Rasor and Mr. Charles A. Thompson have recently been appointed to the Law School faculty to work with the legal writing and law journal programs. Mrs. Rasor served on the Journal as Associate Editor during 1964-65. Mr. Thompson presently is Editor-in-Chief of the Journal of Air Law and Commerce.

The Evening Division of the Law School has been discontinued. Classes will continue for those students already enrolled, but no new students will be admitted in the future. A correspondent increase in enrollment for the Day Division is intended.
