The International Lawyer's Calendar ............... 392
As a service to its members, the Section of International and Comparative Law publishes in October, January, April, and July The International Lawyer, a quarterly law journal devoted to practical problems of special interest to lawyers concerned with international, foreign, and comparative law.

Any member of the American Bar Association may join the Section upon payment of its annual dues of $5. An attorney who is not a member of the Association and requests Section membership will be furnished an application for Association membership. Institutions and individuals not eligible for Association membership may subscribe to The International Lawyer for $15 per year. See last page for membership or order form.

The International Lawyer welcomes comments, notes of interest, letters to the editor, and submission of articles.

Manuscripts must be submitted in quadruplicate (with one typewritten original and three copies) prepared in standard typewriter (not script or all capitals) and must be double or triple spaced, including footnotes and any quoted or indented material.

Manuscripts are submitted at the sender's risk and The International Lawyer assumes no responsibility for the return of material. Material accepted for publication becomes the property of the International and Comparative Law Section of the American Bar Association. No compensation is paid for articles published and no article will be considered that has been accepted or published by any other publication.

Nothing contained herein shall be construed as the action of the American Bar Association, or of the Section of International and Comparative Law, unless the same shall have been first adopted by the House of Delegates pursuant to the bylaws of the Association and the Section.
