The Section of International and Comparative Law, which was organized in 1933 under the leadership of the late Dean John H. Wigmore, is divided into four divisions—international law, comparative law, international trade and investment, and international organizations—and fifty-four committees. Committee work affords a challenging opportunity for members to contribute to Section activity and at the same time receive the benefits which flow from such participation.

The Section usually meets twice a year—in the summer during the annual meeting of the Association and in the spring in Washington, D.C.
