INTER ALIA

Announcements of awards and prizes for outstanding work by members of the Student Editorial Board were made on November 8, 1954. A cash award of $100 has been made to Benton Musslewhite of Lufkin, and Charles G. Thrash, Jr., of Dallas, jointly, by the law firm of Thompson, Knight, Wright & Simmons of Dallas, for the best original comment published in the Journal during the past year. Their comments appear at pages 193 and 225, respectively.

Ernest Specks of Dallas received the $100 cash award from the law firm of Turner, Atwood, White, McLane & Francis of Dallas for the best contribution to the Survey issue of the Journal. His note appears at page 266.

Bob Price was awarded a set of VERNON'S ANNOTATED TEXAS STATUTES by the Vernon Law Book Company for making the most outstanding contribution to the Journal, both in quality and quantity, during the past year.

The Student Editorial Board wishes to thank Mr. Larson for the fine work he has done as our Faculty Advisor. He will be succeeded by Mr. Webster, who is new on our faculty this year. Previously Mr. Webster has been advisor to the Journal at the University of Buffalo, and we are confident that he will be a real inspiration to all of us.

On October 28th and 29th the Southwestern Legal Foundation sponsored, in connection with the School of Law, an Institute on Probate and Trust Law. Approximately 150 attorneys and trust officers attended the lectures which presented many interesting tax problems and other aspects of trust law. The Winter, 1955, issue of the Journal will contain articles highlighting this Institute.

Lou Bickel, Dawson French, Jess Hay, Frank Rose, Sid Stahl and Louis Weber were recently elected to Barristers.
